When the order came to prepare immediately an expeditionary force to go to France, virtually all of the men now across the seas were on the Mexican border. There were no reinforcements available. The vessels that carried the troops were scattered on their usual routes. Army reserve stores were still depleted from the border mobilization. Regiments were below war strength. That was the condition when President Wilson decided that the plan of the French high commission should be answered and a force of regulars sent to France. At

The cause of the destruction is not mentioned in a cablegram from the chief engineer of the three survivors.

AMERICAN TROOPS LAND IN FRANCE

Soldiers Disembark Amid the Frantic Cheers of the People

SPEEDILY BEFLAG PORT

Transfer Soldiers to Camp Near Port Where Maj. Gen.
Sibert is Installed

IN EXCELLENT SHAPE

A FRENCH SEAPORT, June 27.—The second contingent of American troops arrived and disembarked this morning. The troops landed amid the frantic cheers of the people who had gathered for hours before in anticipation of duplicating yesterday's surprise.

Enthusiasm rose to fever pitch when it was learned that the transports and convoys had successfully passed the submarine zone. The port was speedily beflagged in honor of the occasion.

All the troops now arrived were transferred today to a camp not far from this point, where Major General William L. Sibert is installed. Thence they probably will go soon to a point near the front. All the troops are in excellent shape, enthusiastic over the successful trip and their reception and eager for action.

Major General Pershing, the American commander, is expected tomorrow.

The harbor is dotted with convoys. The streets are filled with soldiers in khaki and with bluejackets. Great numbers of trucks are transporting immense supplies to the camp in which the troops are concentrating.

Thousands Hastened Overseas.

Washington, June 27.—The advance guard of the mighty army the United States is preparing to send against Germany is on French soil tonight. In defiance of the German submarines thousands of seasoned regulars and marines, trained fighting men with the tan of long service on the Mexican border or in Haiti or San Domingo still on their faces, have been hastened overseas to fight beside the French, the British, the Belgian, the Portuguese and the Italian troops on the Western Front.

News of the safe arrival of the troops sent a thrill through Washington. No formal announcement came from the war department, none will come probably until Major General Pershing's official report has been received. Then there may be a statement as to the numbers and composition of the advance guard. Press despatches from France, presumably sent with the approval of General Pershing's staff, show that Major General Sibert, one of the new major generals of the army, has been given command of the first force sent abroad under General Pershing as commander-in-chief of the expedition.

Sets Record for Transportation.

One thing stands out sharply despite the fact that the size of the task that has been accomplished is not fully revealed as yet. This is that American enterprise has set a new record for the transportation of troops.

Considering the distance to be covered and the fact that all preparations had to be made after the order came from the white house on the night of May 18, it is practically certain that never before has a military expedition of this size been assembled, conveyed and landed without mishap in so short a time by any nation. The only rival in magnitude is the movement of British troops to South Africa in the Boer war and that was made over seas that were unhampered by submarines, mines or other obstacles.

The American forces will be a net gain to the allies and no burden of supply or equipment will be on them. The troops will be fed, clothed, armed and equipped by the United States. Around them at the camp on French soil tonight are being stored supplies that will keep them going for months and more will follow.

General Pershing and his staff have been busy for days preparing for the arrival of the men. Despite the difficulties of unpreparedness and submarine dangers that faced them, the plans of the army general staff have gone thru with clock-like precision.

Men Were on Mexican Border

When the order came to prepare immediately an expeditionary force to go to France, virtually all of the men now across the seas were on the Mexican border. There were no army transports available. The vessels that carried the troops were scattered on their usual routes. Army reserve stores were still depleted from the border mobilization. Regiments were below war strength. That was the condition when President Wilson decided that the plea of the French high commission should be answered and a force of regulars sent at once to France. At

CORONER'S JURY HOLDS MISS LUSK FOR SHOOTING

Holds Teacher Responsible for Death of Mrs. Roberts

Dr. Roberts testified that Miss Lusk, Asked Him to Tell His Wife She Was Infatuated with Him—Intro-duce Letter Dictated to Dr. R. E. Davies.

Waukegan, Wis., June 27.—Miss Grace Lusk, high school teacher, today was held responsible by a coroner's jury for the death last Thursday of Mrs. Mary Newman Roberts, wife of Dr. David Roberts, for love of whom Miss Lusk shot his wife and then attempted suicide. The jury held that Mrs. Roberts "came to her death as a result of two pistol shots from a special caliber pistol," and directed that "Miss Grace Lusk be held for trial for such shooting."

Dr. Roberts was asked: "What did Miss Lusk ask you to tell your wife?"

"That she was infatuated with me," the veterinarian testified in response.

A letter dictated to Dr. R. E. Davies, after Miss Lusk had shot Mrs. Roberts and herself, was introduced as evidence. The letter said Roberts told Miss Lusk repeatedly that he loved her and her only; that he had sworn his love for her on a Bible.

Miss Lusk continued in the letter that she had threatened to end all if the doctor didn't love her.

Dr. Davies testified that Miss Lusk had told him that Roberts had said he did not love his wife and had promised to tell her before June 15 of his affection for the school teacher. When he did not tell by that date Miss Lusk concluded that Roberts was deceiving both women, Dr. Davies continued. Miss Lusk, he added, had told him that Mrs. Roberts had exasperated her into shooting when she said that Roberts had described Miss Lusk as an old lady who was chasing him.

"She called me such names that I couldn't do anything but shoot her," Miss Lusk said to Dr. Davies, according to his testimony.

Chief of Police McKay testified that Miss Lusk had said at the hospital she was sorry for what she had done.

SUFFRAGISTS HOLD MEETING IN JAIL

Six Women Go to Jail for Obstructing Sidewalk by Displaying Propaganda Banners Before the White House.

Washington, June 27.—Behind jail bars tonight six women suffragists convicted in police court today of obstructing the sidewalk by displaying propaganda banners before the white house, held a song service and suffrage meeting for the other forty women inmates of the prison. The suffragists were given their choice of $25 fines or three days in jail and decided to go to jail. They did not attempt a hunger strike and will be released Friday morning, part of today and a few hours of Friday being counted as full days.

The district prison house women's section presented an extraordinary scene tonight. At a little organ in the carpeted corridor sat Miss Mabel Vernon of Reno, Nev., playing "God Be With You 'Till We Meet Again" and other hymns, while about her stood the little group of singers—Miss Katharine Morey of Boston; Miss Virginia Arnold of Asheville, N. C.; Miss Lavina Dock of Philadelphia; Miss Maude Jamison of Norfolk, Va., and Miss Annie R. Arnell, of Wilmington, Del.

Huddled on a stairway beyond a barred partition were thirty negro women and a few white women who joined in the refrain. The jail matron gave the suffragists permission to address their fellow-prisoners and the meeting which followed developed fervent pleas for the cause of "votes for women."

TWENTY-ONE BRITISH VESSELS ARE SUNK.

LONDON, June 27.—Twenty-one British vessels of more than 1600 tons each and seven under 1600 tons were sunk by mines or submarines last week, according to the weekly statement of losses issued by the admiralty this evening. No fishing vessels met with disaster.

The aggregate number of vessels flying the British flag destroyed by mines or submarines last week shows a net falling off of four as compared with the losses reported the previous week, which numbered 32-27 of more than 1,600 tons and five in the smaller division. In the larger category a decrease of six vessels is shown while among the smaller craft an increase of two vessels lost is indicated.

GREEK STEAMER SUNK.

New York, June 27.—The Greek Steamship N. Hadzikyriakos was torpedoed and sunk by a German submarine about three hundred miles off the English coast on May 31 with a loss of 22 lives, it was announced today by D. J. Therophilatos, agent here for the owners. The vessel of 2,533 tons gross was on her way from South America to England. Word of the destruction reached here in a cablegram from the chief engineer one of the three survivors.

WILL SHOW GOLD DECREASE

Amsterdam, June 27.—The Frankfurter Zeitung says there are indications that the next returns of the imperial bank of Germany will show a considerable decrease in the stock of gold.

GERMAN FAT RATION WILL BE SMALLER

COPENHAGEN, June 27.—Germans are informed officially that rations of fat next winter will be less than the scanty allowance of fifty grams weekly last winter, and that therefore marmelade, preserves, etc., must be relied on almost exclusively to render the daily bread palatable.

Following the precedent set in the French revolution, the central bureau charged with the distribution of fruits and vegetables, has introduced a new division of rations. The year hereafter will be divided into nine marmelade months and three copote months, according to the materials for bread spreading.

APPROVES PROPOSAL FOR COAL PRICE FIXING

Special Committee of Coal Operators Takes Action

Resolution Embodying Plan Will be Submitted to Convention of Four Hundred Miners. Today—Indications are it Will be Accepted.

Washington, June 27.—A proposal that coal prices during the war be fixed by a joint governmental commission composed of the secretary of the interior, the defense council's coal production committee and the federal trade commission was approved tonight by a special committee of coal operators representing the trade in all sections of the country. Tomorrow a resolution embodying this plan will be submitted to the convention of four hundred operators meeting here for discussion of the problem and indications are that it will be accepted.

It then may be presented as a substitute for pending legislation proposing blanket authority for government price fixing on the commodity, and backed by the operators as a compromise adjustment satisfactory both to producers and consumers.

The convention appointed the special committee after it had voted to reconsider a resolution adopted yesterday pledging the operators to insure proper prices thru committees of their number working in conference with the coal production committee of the defense council.

The re-consideration was decided on after speakers pointed out that such a procedure might make the operators liable to prosecution under the Sherman anti-monopoly law.

While the convention was in session the senate interstate commerce committee continued its hearing of operators and others on the bill giving blanket government authority to fix the price of coal and railroad supplies. Most of the operators who appeared expected a willingness to submit to a reasonable government regulation but insisted that they were not responsible for high coal prices and should not be made the objects of any punitive legislation.

BAKERS VOLUNTEER TO AID HOOVER

WASHINGTON, June 27.—The country's bakers put their best foot forward today and assured Herbert C. Hoover that they would carry out all directions issued by the administration as to the conduct of their business.

A representative of the baking industry will be chosen to serve as a voluntary aide to Mr. Hoover and 200 local committees will be named to carry out his instructions.

One of the first moves of the bakers will be toward standardization of loaves. The number of styles and sizes will be reduced considerably in the immediate future.

RESOLUTIONS SEEK TO RESTORE STATUS QUO

CHICAGO, June 27.—Four resolutions, all seeking to restore status quo, were adopted today by members of the school board, appointment of whose successors had plunged the mayor and corporation counsel into the most bitter wrangle with the city council. The resolutions called upon State's Attorney Hoyne to start proceedings to oust the new members on the board; ordered the council to direct the chief of police to withdraw the detail of men now guarding the board's rooms; demanded that the members surrender possession of rooms and finally defining the status of the school situation and declaring that failure of the city council to concur in the appointments of the new board automatically left the old board unchanged.

LATIN-AMERICANS TO HOLD CONFERENCE

MEXICO CITY, June 27.—A Latin-American diplomat who is one of the ministers to Mexico said last night that all Latin-American countries except Cuba and Panama had accepted the invitation of Argentina for a congress of Latin American nations at Buenos Aires at which the stand of Latin-America in the world conflict will be determined and at which will be discussed how best peace can be brought about.

The diplomats said that the invitation from Argentina was presented about a month ago and Mexico had accepted.

SINK NORWEGIAN SHIP.

London, June 27.—A Central News despatch from Copenhagen says the Norwegian steamship Kong Haakon has been sunk by a German submarine and that only six of the crew were saved. (There are two Norwegian ships Kong Haakon, of 2,231 and 874 tons gross).

The Norwegian steamship Maget, (1,118 gross tons) has been sunk in the Atlantic. The crew was saved.

FOOD LEGISLATION TAKES DRASTIC FORM

Senate Committee Virtually Redrafts Many House Bill Features

REPORT TO SENATE

Chamberlain Will Move to Have Measure Substituted for Senate Draft

COMPLICATES SITUATION

WASHINGTON, June 27.—Food control legislation assumed new and more drastic form today when the senate agriculture committee virtually redrafted many of the principal features of the house measure and reported it with material extensions of government power and a new "bone dry" prohibition provision to stop manufacture of intoxicating beverages during the war. The president would be authorized to permit wine making and to commandeer existing distilled spirits.

Present Amended Bill

The amended bill was presented to the senate by Senator Chamberlain. He will move tomorrow to have it substituted for the draft the senate has been debating and proceeded with all expedition toward final action.

The new prohibition plan all leaders admitted tonight greatly complicates the situation and precludes enactment of the legislation by July 1st. In extending the scope of the legislation and the president's powers the committee adopted amendments which would provide for government control (in addition to food, feeds and fuel) of iron, steel, copper and their products, farm implements and machinery, fertilizers and birding twine materials.

Other important amendments approved would authorize the government to take over and operate factories, packing houses, oil wells and mines, regulating wages of their employees and to commandeer supplies of any and every kind when needed for the army and navy, "or any other public use connected with the world defense."

Would Give Power to Buy and Sell

Another amendment would empower the government to buy and sell, for general civilian purposes, food, feeds and fuels, with limitation on the general legislation making it apply to agencies and products only in interstate or foreign commerce. The amendments are said by senators who have been opposing as well as those supporting the legislation to approve the bill and to remove almost all opposition except on prohibition. The prohibition section was written into the bill by a vote of 9 to 7.

The committee rejected by a vote of 8 to 7 its sub-committee's recommendation that the president be given authority to permit continuance of manufacture of malt and fermented beverages.

Suspend Senate Debate

While the committee was revising the house or Lever measure a senate debate on the original Chamberlain draft was suspended. Senator Chamberlain sought to begin debate late today upon the draft but upon objection by Senator Penrose discussion was postponed until tomorrow.

In rewriting and extending the bill the committee adopted a new amendment aimed to prevent government employees or officers from selling their own materials to the government. It declares it to be unlawful for "any person acting either as voluntary or paid agent or employee of the government in any capacity, including an advisory capacity to attempt to procure or make any contract for the purchase of supplies for the use of the government either from himself, from any firm of which he is a member of corporation of which he is an officer of stockholder or in which he has any financial interest" under penalties of a $10,000 fine and five years imprisonment.

Provisions of Proposed Power

The proposed blanket power for government requisition provides: The president is authorized to requisition foods, feeds, fuels and other supplies necessary to the support of the army or the maintenance of the navy or other public use connected with the common defense. Under this the committee purposes to give the government power to take at a just price any supplies needed for military purposes or broadly for the public defense needs. The provision for commandeering of factories, packing houses, oil wells and other plants for military or public defense purposes also would authorize their operation. The committee added an amendment providing that in regulating wages of employees of plants commandeered in case of dispute the federal wage rates shall be settled by arbitration thru the board of mediation and conciliation.

AMERICAN WOODMEN ARRIVE IN ENGLAND

LONDON, June 27.—Ten units of American woodmen sent over by New England states and organizations to turn various forests of the United Kingdom into lumber have arrived on English soil.

The complete equipment of the units caused much surprise and occasioned a great deal of favorable comment. The woodmen brought with them not only the necessary machinery but were fully equipped in every way, even to lubricating oils. Their arrival found them ready to establish their saw mills and begin work at once. The only necessity for their maintenance is raw food, which their own cooks will prepare.

THREATEN FORCE TO SUPPRESS DISORDERS

Report Russ Government Action Reaches Washington

Summary of Recent Official Dispatches from Petrograd to the Mission in U. S. Shows Full Support of New Government by Workmen and Soldiers.

Washington, June 27.—The Russian provisional government's first threat of force to suppress disorders in Petrograd was reported in dispatches to the Russian mission here today after having been endorsed by the people and to have prevented hostile demonstrations. A summary of recent official dispatches from Petrograd to the mission here showing the full support of the new government by the workmen and the soldiers, the peasants and all but the minority radical Socialists was given out today as follows:

"The latest news from Petrograd says that a strong and united majority has been formed in that country and in the public organizations, on which the government can fully rely. The political parties which support the government are the constitutional Democrats, the labor party, the majority of Social Democrats and of the Socialist party, the so-called internationalists and extremists, forming a small minority."

"The resolutions adopted by the Pan-Russian conference of peasant delegates and the council of workmen and soldiers manifested a agreement with the program of the government, which thus has the support of these strong organizations with their great authority among the masses."

Some nervousness was felt in Petrograd a few days ago on account of rumors of counter-revolution movements which proved to be without any foundation. On that occasion, the radical elements intended to organize public manifestations in the streets. The provisional government proclaimed that all attempts at violence would be crushed with all the force of the state authorities.

HUGHES WILL ARGUE APPEAL FROM RULING

CHICAGO, June 27.—An appeal from a ruling by Federal Judge Landis who refused the American Press association right to sell its property to the Western Newspaper Union will be argued in the appellate court here tomorrow by Charles E. Hughes defeated candidate for president.

The sale of the American Press association to the Newspaper Union, was forbidden by an injunction issued by Judge Landis, and which in a recent decision he declined to remove on the grounds that it would make the newspaper union a monopoly. Both concerns now deal in news plate supplies to newspapers.

The press association which is petitioning for the sale argues that the transfer is necessary to preserve any of its assets.

REPORT FAVORABLE CROP CONDITIONS

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 27.—Favorable conditions in all Illinois crops are reported in the bulletin of the federal weather bureau for the week ending June 26, issued here today.

"The week was the most favorable of the season for crop growth and farm work," the bulletin said. "Corn is growing rapidly and is well cultivated. Oats are in splendid condition, but are too rank in some places. Meadows and pastures are generally good. Wheat continues to show improvement and is ripening and filling. Harvest will begin this week in the south end of the state. Insects and bugs are infesting potatoes."

NOT ENTIRELY SATISFACTORY

Chicago, June 27.—Recruiting in Illinois for the war army has not been entirely satisfactory to officers in charge of the work. Nineteen Illinois counties in the Terre Haute, Ind., recruiting district have furnished 545 volunteers of a quota of 1,101. Douglas is the only county so far to exceed its apportionment, having sent 41 men. Jasper county has sent only six men, while 36 men are expected from the county.

POTATO PRICES

Chicago, June 27.—Wholesale prices of potatoes here dropped 40 to 45 cents a bushel today to the lowest level of this year. Receipts were only sixty cars and sales were made at $2.40 and $2.65 as compared with Tuesday sales at $3.00 and $3.20 a bushel. There are 300 cars of potatoes in the yards here awaiting an outlet. They have been on the track here for more than a week while prices have dropped 80 cents to $1 a bushel.

CHIEF SCHUETTLE AT HEARING BEFORE LOWDEN

Protests Against Bill Forbidding Use of "Third Degree"

Retail Book Dealers from All Parts of the State Ask Executive to Veto Bill to Regulate the Adoption, Sale and Distribution of Text Books.

Springfield, Ill., June 27.—Chief of Police Schuettler of Chicago and other police officers this morning at a hearing before Governor Lowden protested against Senator Jewell's bill forbidding the use of the "third degree" in attempting to obtain confessions from prisoners. The measure is before the governor for his signature.

Retail book dealers were here today from all parts of the state to ask Governor Lowden to veto Senator Jewell's bill to regulate the adoption, sale and distribution of text books. Their contention is that the measure was backed by the "book trust."

Governor Lowden will give a hearing today to opponents of the bill to establish military training in the public schools.

Among the bills signed today were the following:

H. B. 778 (Guernsey) Requiring the dimming of automobile headlights when approaching other vehicles.

H. B. 702 (DeYoung) Permits the survivor of joint depositors in a bank to withdraw deposits.

H. B. 761 (Frisch) Provides that in townships in which a city and township boundaries are identical, the power of the board of auditors shall be retained by the auditor.

H. B. 868 (Frisch) Making an appropriation for paving the streets around the state capitol at Springfield. The total is $23,418.

The following bills were allowed to become laws without the governor's signature:

H. B. 721 (T. E. Lyon) To provide for the burial of indigent or friendless soldiers.

H. B. 925 (Gutsche) Requiring judges of city courts to be regular licensed attorneys.

The governor vetoed S. B. 531 by Lantz, which appropriates $6,000 for the construction of brick pavement adjacent to state property at Pontiac.

HOYNE WILL SEEK REVERSAL OF DECISION

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 27.—Macy Hoyne, state's attorney of Cook county, will make an attempt to have the Illinois supreme court reverse its decision granting a new trial to Charles B. Munday, convicted in Grundy county of bank wrecking and sentenced to serve five years in prison.

Hoyne notified Attorney General Brundage today that he would ask leave to file a motion for a rehearing of the case in the supreme court in an attempt to have the trial court upheld.

A new trial was granted Munday by the higher court on the ground that the conduct of attorneys for the prosecution and the atmosphere of the trial court room were not altogether proper.

Munday was vice president of the LaSalle Street Bank and was interested in other enterprises.

ILLINOIS CORONERS' ASSOCIATION ELECTS

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 27.—Officers were elected by the Illinois State Coroners' association before adjournment of its annual session here today as follows:

President—W. C. Wunderlich, Joliet.

First vice president—James F. Hare, Bloomington.

Second vice president—C. S. Norvell, Wagoner.

Declarator was chosen as the place for the 1918 convention. The association went on record favoring a law to abolish the fee system for coroners and the establishment of a straight salary plan.

METAL MINE WORKERS STRIKE.

Bisbee, Ariz., June 27.—Between 9,000 and 10,000 members of the Metal Mine Workers' union, are idle today as a result of a strike called by the union last night on the properties of the Copper Queen, Calumet and Arizona and Shattuck Arizona Copper companies. The strike followed refusal of the copper companies to treat with the miners' organization or consider its demands.

SINK DANISH STEAMER.

FRENCH LOSSES SLIGHT

FRENCH FRONT in France, June 27.—By The Associated Press.—A French military chaplain figured prominently with the French troops in a brilliantly successful attack on the Chemin des Dames in the neighborhood of Huertebas.

Calls on Germans to Surrender

While advancing with a stretcher bearer detachment the chaplain was confronted by the fearsome figure of a German officer whose clothing was aflame. The chaplain raised a crucifix and offered religious comfort to the burning man, who pointed to the rear where another German officer was creeping out of a hole. The chaplain still holding the crucifix aloft advanced shouting to the Germans to surrender. The officer replied:

"We are ready but will surrender only to an officer."

A French officer approached and entered the cavern where 150 Germans including three officers, laid down their arms.

Scene of an Ambuscade

Where the action occurred was the scene of an ambuscade of the French in the beginning of 1915, which resulted in considerable French losses. When the French attacked on this occasion the position was peculiar. The southern entrance of the enormous cavern, between Grotto farm and the monument commemorative of a Napoleonic victory in 1814, was held by the French. The northern entrance was held by the Germans. The cavern was 500 feet long and 300 feet broad. Across it the Germans had built a brick wall. Above the ridge the French and German trenches were separated by only a few yards. The French objective was to drive the Germans from the cavern and gain the observation points on the surface.

The German trenches were won in a flank attack. While the southern entrance was filled with gas, which penetrated to the German section, the northern entrance was shelled and showered with machine gun bullets. The operation succeeded beyond all expectations and resulted in the capture of 317 prisoners, including a number of officers. The French now hold all the dominating points on this part of the Chemin des Dames.

Shout "The War is Over"

The prisoners came in batches with hands held high in the air and shouting: "The

THE RED CROSS CAUSE

The Red Cross cause appeals no more strongly to people of large means than to those of small or medium means. Its appeal is universal, resting first on patriotism and next on humanity. To the army of young men going across seas to encounter pain, privation, and possibly death, or a wounding which may be worse than death, it is not the homes of the rich, comparatively few as they are, which contribute most.

The great majority must come out of middle-class homes, and homes in which the chief treasures are the girls and boys under the roof-tree; homes where suffering—sometimes felt and sometimes made. The Red Cross carries humanity beyond the hospital and the camp. It does not stop at the line where the sound of firing is to be heard. Its soldiers reach to the firing lines for the relief of the stricken and fallen. And to the boy who left a cottage to fight for his country, its ministrations are as freely given as to the one who left a mansion.—Globe Democrat.

MEN AND JOBS

Samuel Gompers, who recently declared there is no shortage of labor in this country, should come to Jacksonville and endeavor to find a man to do a day's work. Here it isn't a question of wages but a question of finding a man for the job if that job happens to be of a kind which requires considerable hard work in the sun.

OIL AND COAL FOR UNCLE SAM

Since it is announced that the U. S. navy's immediate requirements are fifty million barrels of oil and two million tons of coal it will be proper for the oil companies and the coal operators to make another advance in prices. The original announcement stated that the government would pay the prices for this coal and oil fixed by the federal trade commission. Thus far the prices fixed for government purchases of supplies of that kind have been at a figure subject to arbitration, so nobody yet knows what the government is going to pay, but the prices will certainly be high.

LOOKING FORWARD

The Willys-Overland company, one of the greatest automobile manufacturing concerns in the U. S., is among the first to announce the establishment of a branch for the manufacture of aeroplanes. The automobile business of the country has developed from almost nothing to its present gigantic proportions in fifteen years. Who can prophesy what the next fifteen years will hold in the improved methods of travel—that is, if you account sailing thru mid air as an improvement.

UNCERTAINTY DISTURBS MARKETS

One thing is certain, that in the interest of the public very soon an end should come to the agitation about fixing prices of foodstuffs, coal and other necessities. The discussion and newspaper publicity which has been going on for several weeks has served to do disturb market conditions that neither consumers or producers know just what to do. Some stabilizing measure must be taken also with reference to government purchases, which are reported to be made at this figure and that figure, with the statement that later on the price to be paid will be settled by arbitration. Uncertainty is the greatest disturber of business and in the interest of everybody concerned agreements on all these lines must soon be found.

THE GOVERNMENT'S SPECIAL PRICES

This is the way the Wall Street Journal outlines the way "big business" feels about being called upon to sell the government materials or supplies at prices lower than are charged private purchasers.

The argument that the Government should pay less for an article than is paid by the general public rests on a single premise, that of patriotism. It is illogical and disputes the law of supply and demand. Here is a case in point: The maker of ship plates sells his plates to a private shipbuilder for $100 a ton. He is asked to sell to the Government for $50 a ton. Adjoining the manufacturer of toilet articles who has nothing to sell to the Government, but who enjoys unusual prosperity because his profits are 100 percent higher than they were a year ago. One manufacturer is penalized while the other is permitted to reap a harvest. The stockholders of the steel plant are subject to double taxation for they not only submit to a regular corporation tax but also submit to a lowering of their profits by 50 percent. These stockholders of the other concern reap all the benefits of high prices and pay only one

THE SPEECHMAKER

They call upon me now and then, to make a speech on this or that; I rise before my fellowmen, and shoot some wisdom through my hat. A glow of pleasure most men feel when they hand out profound remarks, for every fellow likes to hear the star dog enjoys his barks. And ten men out of every nine, go on and on and on, they like it so, till palsied hearers wilt and pine, and with they had some eggs to throw. When I begin I note the clock, which has all time at its command; I keep on squinting as I talk, and mark the moving minute hand. I watch the clock with baleful eye, I stand where I can see its face, and when ten minutes have gone by, I put my tongue back in its place. My lungs would like, like everything, to labor on, but they must cease; I tie my larynx with a string, and put them all in my valise. So I am often asked to rise and thrash the issues of the day, for people know I am too wise to keep it up till they are gray. They know I always watch the clock, and when the proper hour has come, I grab my hat and take a walk, and seal my lips with chewing gum.

BRING PRESSURE TO BEAR TO STOP CAMPAIGN

MEXICO CITY, June 22.—Every possible pressure, including financial offers is reported to have been brought to bear by Germans and pro-Germans to stop the campaign of El Universal for the severance of relations between Mexico and Germany.

The campaign continues to be the main topic of conversation here. El Universal will say editorially tomorrow that in the flood of comment which its stand has evoked no paper or person has taken a pro-German stand or proposed that Mexico ally herself with the central powers.

The editorial declares that the opinions of intellectual leaders were chosen to give point to the paper's campaign as governmental officers from the nature of their positions could say nothing and politicians always played safe while it was the purpose of the paper to give expression to the opinion of the real thing people of Mexico.

The discussion of the campaign has brought renewal of charges that pro-German papers are being directly aided in their campaign against the United States by free print paper supplied by firms in the United States.

The woman's building of the University is to be turned into barracks for army aviation instruction school located here for the duration of the war, it was announced today. Aviators now number 110 with the full quota of 200 expected to be reached by July 15. The men now are housed in the big university armory but will move to the remodeled woman's building about August 1st.

After escorting Byron to the field the police stationed themselves near the Cardinal bench to prevent any disturbance. There was no demonstration this afternoon.

SHIRTING RESPONSIBILITY

There are a lot of congressmen and senators at Washington who are ready and willing to pass on to the president full authority to restrict the manufacture of liquors as a matter of conserving the grain supply of the country. Although these patriots have frequently complained that the president has too much authority and is continually seeking more, they are very anxious in this case to place the power and incidentally the responsibility—in the presidential hands. By so doing they are of course, seeking to avert responsibility themselves and so hope to avoid a lot of explaining to the "folks back home."

CITY ECONOMY

Just as Governor Lowden declared in his pre-election campaign that there were too many commissions in Illinois to provide economical government, so the Russell Sage foundation is maintaining that Springfield has too many commissions and separate departments for economy in the administration of city affairs. After reading the survey's report on the situation and realizing that too many salaries exist in the several departments of the city government, and that there is too much division of authority, the Springfield people may want to turn to the city manager plan as offering them the centralized power which the foundation report seems to indicate is greatly needed.

With fewer commissions and more economy in the management of its affairs, Springfield would not be in its present depleted financial condition.

AN APPEAL TO PATRIOTISM

The manner in which Secretary Lane appealed to the coal operators to be moderate in the prices they demand should have its beneficial effect. The secretary did not mince his words and appealed to the coal men first in the name of patriotism and secondly on the ground that their reasonable action would forestall commanding plans by the government.

Certainly with all the facts before them it does seem that the coal operators will get together and agree to maintain prices which give them a reasonable profit upon the product but which at the same time are fair to the government and the public. If manufacturers and the business men can be brought to look at this whole question of commodity prices as one of patriotism, as effective results, and probably more satisfactory can be obtained than would come through a series of legislative acts.

PRICE FIXING

Doubtless congress will pass some legislation granting the president authority to deal with the food situation but each passing day the proposed bill is complicated by additions and amendments. It is now proposed to give the government control of all foodstuffs, coal, steel, copper and other minerals. Perhaps some of the men in congress are proposing to widen the scope of the bill in this way with the very purpose of so prolonging the debate that price fixing cannot apply to this year's crops. Whether or not that is the purpose, they are accomplishing this very thing. So many interests are now involved and the debate promises to be so long that much of the 1917 crop will have been handled before the proposed law is realized. It is an open question, one with many arguments for and against—as to whether it will be beneficial to the country to have maximum prices fixed for farm products, foodstuffs and certain materials necessary for the conduct of the war, but if that price fixing is to be done there is no benefit in long postponement.

NO DANGER OF EXCESS FUND

The dispatches have shown that the hundred million dollar subscription desired for the Red Cross society has been oversubscribed by several millions. This showing speaks remarkably well not only for the patriotism of the people, but for their understanding that by this giving they are providing for their own as the money will be used in caring for wounded soldiers as the war progresses.

The liberty loan was oversubscribed by millions and it is now understood that it will only be a few months hence until the people will have another opportunity of showing their patriotic feeling for the country in like manner. The same situation relates to the Red Cross society, and while the hundred million mark has been passed, there is no danger of the society accumulating more funds than needed. And, in fact, it will only be a matter of time until a second appeal is necessary. That will be after Americans have begun to watch the cable messages for casualty lists, and there will be an even more ready and generous response to Red Cross appeals.

THE COUNTY EXEMPTION BOARD

The duties of the county exemption board have not yet been fully outlined but in the appointment of the board members here definite assurance is given that exemption matters will be handled with patriotism, fairness and efficiency. As previously mentioned, Miller Weir, W. N. Haingrove and Dr. Albert E. Black have been constituted the Morgan county exemption board by appointment of President Wilson at the suggestion of Gov. Lowden who acted after conference with members of the legislature from this district. Members of exemption boards throughout the state have been named and it is expected that at a comparatively early date the duties and powers of the board members will be fully explained by the government.

The draft plans by which the first million and a half soldiers will be chosen under the conscription law have been practically formulated and so it is only reasonable to assume that the exemption board duties will soon be explained. The local board is representative and the men constituting it can be relied upon to give their duties and the deserved earnest and careful consideration, so that the government requirements may be fully met.

THE SUN.

The clouds were strung across the sky, day after day, week after week; they wouldn't let the ear get dry, for every hour they'd spring a leak. There was no let-up to the rain, it wouldn't do a thing but pour; all day we heard it on the pane, and sobbing, slopping at the door. All night it sloshed and streamed and wept, and beat and pounded in the dark, till weary people, as they slept, would dream of Noah and his Ark. At last the rain no longer dripped, no longer soaked the aching land; the dingy clouds broke up and skipped, the sun appeared and his old stand. Then did the air with joy resound and it was most instructive fun to see the people stand around, and hear their blessings on the sun. The matron and the lovely lass, the husky man, shed tears and cried, "It takes the sun to cut the grass! It is all wool and three ells wide!" We don't appreciate the sun while it pursues its daily course; but when it hides two weeks or one, we hoot and howl until we're hoarse. And if it shines a bit too long, as in the middle of July, we groan beneath our load of wrong, and throw some dornicks at the sky.

DOES NOT REFER TO RECENT AMERICAN NOTE

TOKIO, June 27.—Viscount Motono, foreign minister, did not refer to the recent American note to China in his speech in the diet yesterday, but he dealt with China's attitude toward the war which, for Japan, "possessed very great importance."

China, he said had requested Japan's advice regarding America's position that she break relations with Germany, and Japan had counseled China to accept the invitation in China's own interest. Judged from the Japanese standpoint the step was desirable, he added because it was inconceivable that Germany was pursuing dangerous machinations against Japan and her allies.

Viscount Motono regretted that international disension had prevented China's formally entering the war but he hoped she would decide for war and thus remove the Germany danger to peace in the far east, ally herself with the defense of the rights of humanity and within the world's sympathy.

Premier Terauchi, in his address emphasized Japan's sincere gratification at America's entry into the war.

SPRINGFIELD MAN HEADS DRY GOODS MEN

PEORIA, Ill., June 27.—C. P. Summers of Springfield, was this afternoon elected president of the Illinois Drygoods Men's association which opened its convention here this morning. Other officers elected are Francis Kilduff of LaSalle, first vice president; Irving N. Klein of Chicago, second vice president; H. T. Willis of Champaign, third vice president; Robert A. Schoenfeld of Peoria, secretary-treasurer. The following directors were elected: I. H. Lewis, Danville; R. C. Chapelle, Galesburg; T. J. Prentiss, Decatur; C. J. Fisher, Belleville; Theodore Kuhl, Peoria. P. A. Berger of Peoria, C. P. Summers of Springfield and I. M. ## REGULAR ARMY STILL FIFTY THOUSAND SHORT

WASHINGTON, June 27.—With recruiting week half gone, war department officials estimated today that the regular army still is more than fifty thousand men short of war strength, the goal it had been hoped to attain by Friday night. On the face of the returns so far, it is apparent that there has been no general response among men of military age to President Wilson's call for twenty thousand volunteers during the week to fill up the ranks of the regular establishment and thus complete the first big military preparation in the war against Germany.

Returns for the first three days, in fact, were below the average of the week's preceding. They were far below the expectations of officials here who had been confident that the president's direct appeal would bring home to thousands the fact that their country needs them at once.

TO POSTPONE RATE CONTEMPT CASE

CHICAGO, June 27.—It was said in authoritative circles today that when the railroad rate contempt case involving Illinois passenger fare rates comes up in court here tomorrow a postponement for a considerable period will be taken. In the meantime it is expected in railroad circles that the 2.4 cent rate approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission, will remain in force, instead of the state fixed rate of 2 cents for which the attorney-general of Illinois has been contending. This it is believed will afford time for the supreme court of the United States to settle the federal authority of the state and the federal authorities.

DISCLAIM KNOWING PRESIDENT'S VIEW

WASHINGTON, June 27.—Administration officials disclaim knowing how President Wilson looks upon the prohibition amendment of the food bill, but it is generally believed he will not oppose its adoption by congress. Although the president has not indicated his attitude, it was thought today he would agree with Herbert C. Hoover, the food administrator who has announced he looks upon prohibition not only from the practical point of view but it is more important to use foodstuffs exclusively for food.

If the president takes any stand on the subject some officials believe it will be on whether the food bill will be hindered in passage and involved in long debate by the attachment of such amendments.

GERMAN SHIPPING INCREASING.

London, June 27.—A despatch to the Times from Rotterdam says that German shipping there is steadily increasing. Twenty two German ships from Hamburg and Baltic ports entered last week. Two German ships were torpedoed or mined by British but traffic was unaffected.

MAY NOT APPROVE BILL

Washington, June 27.—President Wilson may not approve the $26,000,000 river and harbor bill if it comes to him without provision for a presidential commission to study the waterway situation. Provision for such a commission which the president strongly favored, was stricken out of the bill on a point of order in the house yesterday.

CARPENTIER TO VISIT U. S.

New York, June 27.—Georges Carpentier, the famous French army aviator and lightweight boxer, will visit America within the next few weeks, according to R. C. Kegin, a boxing promoter, who has just returned from France. Carpentier, however, will not accept any engagements to meet American boxers while he will confine his activities to aiding recruiting for the French army flying corps.

DETECTIVES GUARD COURTROOM

New York, June 27.—A number of secret service men today were assigned to guard the courtroom at the trials of Alexander Berkman, editor of The Blast, and Emma Goldman, in the United States district court. Both were indicted for conspiracy to obstruct the operation of the selective draft.

FORECAST EXCESS PROFITS TAX

Washington, June 27.—A war excess profits tax upon corporations, partnerships and individuals of about sixteen per cent—double present rates—and so change in the proposed taxes upon publishers—five percent upon their net profits plus a post-age increase of quarter cent a pound—were forecast by Senate finance committee members today as they worked toward completing the war bill.

MALICIOUS RUMOR
BALTIMORE, Md., June 29.—To offset a malicious rumor which has been put in circulation that the American Red Cross was discriminating against the nursing sisterhoods of the Catholic church, Cardinal Gibbons took up the matter with the Red Cross and has received the following letter from Elliot Wadsworth, Cross, Washington, D. C.:

"Your Eminence:
"The question of the attitude of the American Red Cross toward utilizing the services of nursing sisterhoods has been raised several times lately. It might almost appear from the form of some of these questions that a rumor was being deliberately circulated that the American Red Cross was in an unfavorable attitude toward allowing the sisterhoods to assist in the care of wounded soldiers and sailors.

"It seems advisable to state unequivocally to you at this time that members of the nursing sisterhoods may wear their official dress while serving as nurses under the Red Cross and that the Red Cross has no desire in any way to debar the sisters on account of their dress, or on any other account, from serving their country as all other nurses will desire to do."

DECLINE INVITATION.
London, June 27.—The section of British Socialists led by Henry Hyndman has declined the invitation of the Russian council of workers and soldiers' delegates to attend the international Socialist conference at Stockholm. The refusal is based on the fact that the conference will be attended by German and Austrian Socialists and that it cannot serve the cause of peace or socialism as long as Germans remain in possession of territory they seized and devastated.

SHEDDING RESPONSIBILITY

There are a lot of congressmen and senators at Washington who are ready and willing to pass on to the president full authority to settle all matters relative to restrictions in the manufacture of liquors as a matter of conserving the grain supply of the country. Although these patriots have frequently complained that the president has too much authority and is continually seeking more, they are very anxious in this case to place the power—and incidentally the responsibility—in the presidential hands. By so doing they are of course, seeking to avert responsibility themselves and so hope to avoid a lot of explaining to the "folks back home."

CITY ECONOMY

Just as Governor Lowden declared in his pre-election campaign that there were too many commissions in Illinois to provide economical government, so the Russell Sage foundation is maintaining that Springfield has too many commissions and separate departments for economy in the administration of city affairs. After reading the survey's report on the situation and realizing that too many salaried positions exist in the several departments of the city government, and that there is too much division of authority, the Springfield people may want to turn to the city manager plan as offering them the centralized power which the foundation report seems to indicate is greatly needed.

With fewer commissions and more economy in the management of its affairs, Springfield would not be in its present depleted financial condition.

AN APPEAL TO PATRIOTISM

The manner in which Secretary Lane appealed to the coal operators to be moderate in the prices they demand should have its beneficial effect. The secretary did not mince his words and appealed to the coal men first in the name of patriotism and secondly on the ground that their reasonable action would forestall commandeering plans by the government.

Certainly with all the facts before them it does seem that the coal operators will get together and agree to maintain prices which give them a reasonable profit upon the product but which at the same time are fair to the government and the public. If manufacturers and the business men can be brought to look at this whole question of commodity prices as one of patriotism, as effective results, and probably more satisfactory can be obtained than would come thru a series of legislative acts.

PRICE FIXING

Doubtless congress will pass some legislation granting the president authority to deal with the food situation but each passing day the proposed bill is complicated by additions and amendments. It is now proposed to give the government control of all foodstuffs, coal, steel, copper and other minerals. Perhaps some of the men in congress are proposing to widen the scope of the bill in this way with the very purpose of so prolonging the debate that price fixing cannot apply to this year's crops. Whether or not that is the purpose, they are accomplishing this very thing. So many interests are now involved and the debate promises to be so long that much of the 1917 crop will have been handled before the proposed law is realized. It is an open question, one with many arguments for and against—as to whether it will be beneficial to the country to fix maximum prices fixed for farm products, foodstuffs and certain materials necessary for the conduct of the war, but if that price fixing is to be done there is no benefit in long postponement.

NO DANGER OF EXCESS FUND

The dispatches have shown that the hundred million dollar subscription desired for the Red Cross society has been oversubscribed by several millions. This showing speaks remarkably well not only for the patriotism of the people, but for their understanding that by this giving they are providing for their own as the money will be used in caring for wounded soldiers as the war progresses.

The liberty loan was oversubscribed by millions and it is now understood that it will only be a few months hence until the people will have another opportunity of showing their patriotic feeling for the country in like manner. The same situation relates to the Red Cross society, and while the hundred million mark has been passed, there is no danger of the society accumulating more funds than needed. And, in fact, it will only be a matter of time until a second appeal is necessary. That will be after Americans have begun to watch the cable messages for casualty lists, and there will be an even more ready and generous response to Red Cross appeals.

THE COUNTY EXEMPTION BOARD

The duties of the county exemption board have not yet been fully outlined but in the appointment of the board members here definite assurance is given that exemption matters will be handled with patriotism, fairness and efficiency. As previously mentioned, Miller Weir, W. N. Hargrove and Dr. Carl E. Black have been constituted the Morgan county exemption board by appointment of President Wilson at the suggestion of Gov. Lowden, who acted after conference with members of the legislature from this district. Members of exemption boards throughout the state have been named and it is expected that at a comparatively early date the duties and powers of the board members will be fully explained by the government.

The draft plans by which the first million and a half soldiers will be chosen under the conscription law have been practically formulated and so it is only reasonable to assume that the exemption board duties will soon be explained. The local board is representative and the men constituting it can be relied upon to give their duties and the deserved earnest and careful consideration, so that the government requirements may be fully met.

Rippling Rhymes

THE SUN.

The clouds were strung across the sky, day after day, week after week; they wouldn't let the earth get dry, for every hour they'd spring a leak. There was no let-up to the rain, it wouldn't do a thing but pour; all day we heard it on the pane, and sobbing, slopping at the door. All night it sloshed and streamed and wept, and beat and pounded in the dark, till weary people, as they slept, would dream of Noah and his Ark. At last the rain no longer dripped, no longer soaked the aching land; the dingy clouds broke up and skipped, the sun appeared at his old stand. Then did the air with joy resound and it was most instructive fun to see the people stand around, and heap their blessings on the sun. The matron and the lovely lass, the husky man, shed tears and cried, "It takes the sun to cut the grass! It is all wool and three ells wide!" We don't appreciate the sun while it pursues its daily course; but when it hides two weeks or one, we hoot and howl until we're hoarse. And if it shines a bit too long, as in the middle of July, we groan beneath our load of wrong, and throw some dornicks at the sky.

DOES NOT REFER TO RECENT AMERICAN NOTE

TOKIO, June 27.—Viscount Motono, foreign minister, did not refer to the recent American note to China in his speech in the diet yesterday, but he dealt with China's attitude toward the war which, for Japan, "possessed very great importance."

China, he said had requested Japan's advice regarding America's invitation that she break relations with Germany, and Japan had counseled China to accept the invitation in China's own interest. Judged from the Japanese standpoint the step was desirable, he added because it was incontestable that Germany was pursuing dangerous machinations against Japan and her allies.

Viscount Motono regretted that international dissension had prevented China's formally entering the war but he hoped she would decide for war and thus remove the German danger to peace in the far east, ally herself with the defense of the rights of humanity and within the world's sympathy.

SPRINGFIELD MAN HEADS DRY GOODS MEN

PEORIA, Ill., June 27.—C. P. Summers of Springfield, was this afternoon elected president of the Illinois Drygoods Men's association which opened its convention here this morning. Other officers elected are Francis Kilduff of LaSalle, first vice president; Irving N. Klein of Chicago, second vice president; H. T. Willis of Champaign, third vice president; Robert A. Schoenfeld of Peoria, secretary-treasurer. The following directors were elected: I. H. Lewis, Danville; R. C. Chappelle, Galesburg; T. J. Prentiss, Decatur; C. J. Fisher, Belleville; Theodore Kuhl, Peoria.

P. A. Bergner of Peoria, C. P. Summers of Springfield and I. M. Klein of Chicago were appointed a committee to attend the proposed conference of merchants from all parts of the United States in Washington on July 10 and present the Illinois Drygoods Men's ideas for an efficiency and economic program during the period of the war. There were 130 delegates from all parts of the state present at the sessions today. The greater part of the delegates left for their homes tonight.

REGULAR ARMY STILL FIFTY THOUSAND SHORT

WASHINGTON, June 27.—With recruiting week half gone, war department officials estimated today that the regular army still is more than fifty thousand men short of war strength, the goal it had been hoped to attain by Friday night.

On the face of the returns so far, it is apparent that there has been no general response among men of military age to President Wilson's call for seventy thousand volunteers during the week to fill up the ranks of the regular establishment and thus complete the first big military preparation in the war against Germany.

Returns for the first three days, in fact, were below the average of the week's preceding. They were far below the expectations of officials here who had been confident that the president's direct and clear-cut appeal for volunteers would bring home to thousands the fact that their country needs them at once.

TO POSTPONE RATE CONTEMPT CASE

CHICAGO, June 27.—It was said in authoritative circles today that when the railroad rate contempt case involving Illinois passenger fare rates came up in court here tomorrow a postponement for a considerable period will be taken. In the meantime, it is expected in railroad circles that the 2.4 cent rate approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission, will remain in force, instead of the state fixed rate of 2 cents for which the attorney-general of Illinois has been contending. This it is believed will afford time for the supreme court of the United States to settle the controversy between the state and the federal authorities.

DISCLAIM KNOWING PRESIDENT'S VIEW

WASHINGTON, June 27.—Administration officials disclaim knowing how President Wilson looks upon the prohibition amendment of the food bill, but it is generally believed he will not oppose its adoption by congress. Although the president has not indicated his attitude, it was thought today he would agree with Herbert C. Hoover, the food administrator who has announced he looks upon prohibition only from the practical point of whether it is more important to use foodstuffs exclusively for food.

If the president takes any stand on the subject some officials believe it will be on whether the food bill should be hindered in passage and involved in long debate by the attachment of such amendments.

GERMAN SHIPPING INCREASING.

London, June 27.—A despatch to the Times from Rotterdam says that German shipping there is steadily increasing. Twenty two German ships from Hamburg and Baltic ports entered last week. Two German ships were torpedoed or mined by British but traffic was unaffected.

MAY NOT APPROVE BILL

Washington, June 27.—President Wilson may not approve the $26,000,000 river and harbor bill if it comes to him without provision for a presidential commission to study the waterway situation. Provision for such a commission which the president strongly favored, was stricken out of the bill on a point of order in the house yesterday.

CARPENTIER TO VISIT U. S.

New York, June 27.—Georges Carpentier, the famous French army aviator and lightweight boxer, will visit America within the next few weeks, according to R. C. Koggin, a boxing promoter, who has just returned from France. Carpentier, however, will not accept any engagements to meet American boxers while here, but will confine his activities to aiding recruiting for the French army flying corps.

FORECAST EXCESS PROFITS TAX

Washington, June 27.—A war excess profits tax upon corporations, partnerships and individuals of about sixteen per cent—double present rates—and so change in the proposed taxes upon publishers five percent upon their net profits plus a post-war increase of quarter cent a pound were forecast by Senate finance committee members today as they worked toward completing the war tax bill.

Sheehan-Shannon

Miss Mary Shannon and Patrick Leo Sheehan were married Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock at the Church of Our Savior, the Rev. F. F. Formaz officiating in the presence of a large concourse of friends. Miss Margaret A. Ring played the wedding march from Lohengrin as the party entered, playing the Mendelssohn march at the ceremony's close. Miss Jessie Yeck was bridesmaid and John O'Brien, a cousin of the bride, was best man. Patrick Sheehan and J. Harry Brown were the ushers.

The bride wore a gown of emerald-green net and a tulle veil, fastened with pearls. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses. The bridesmaid was attired in yellow chiffon and silk. She wore a white picture hat and carried roses. Following the ceremony the guests repaired to the home of the bride, where a wedding breakfast of five courses was served. Roses formed the decorations of the dining room and in the living room sweet peas were used. Yellow and white were the predominating tones throughout the luncheon, which was enjoyed by relatives and friends to the number of forty. A large wedding cake was cut and search made for the accustomed tokens, which were found by the following: a darling needle, Miss Katherine Kiloran, key, Patrick Sheehan, dime, John O'Brien and ring, Frank Steidel.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheehan left for a brief wedding journey by an afternoon Wabash train for the west. They will visit St. Louis in the course of their journey and on their return will go to a farm near Woodson to make their home.

Few weddings of the mid-summer time have called forth more good wishes and congratulatory words. Both bride and groom are well known in the community and they begin married life under conditions which augur well. The bride has for several years been a teacher in the city schools and there have been none more capable. She is the daughter of Mrs. Ellen Shannon, 302 Howe street, and received her education in the parochial schools and in Jacksonville High school. The groom is a resident of Woodson and his standing in that community is deservedly high. He is a young man whose habits of industry have brought an ever increasing measure of success. He is the son of John Sheehan of Woodson and received his education in the county schools.

Collison-Dickins.

J. P. Collison of Exeter and Miss Mabel C. Dickins of Chapin were married by Rev. J. W. Priest at the court house Wednesday. The groom is a farmer and he and his bride will at once begin housekeeping in the vicinity of Exeter.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheehan left for a brief wedding journey by an afternoon

Wabash train for the west. They will visit St. Louis in the course of their journey and on their return will go to a farm near Woodson to make their home.

Few weddings of the mid-summer time have called forth more good wishes and congratulatory words. Both bride and groom are well known in the community and they begin married life under conditions which augur well. The bride has for several years been a teacher in the city schools and there have been none more capable. She is the daughter of Mrs. Ellen Shannon, 292 Howe street, and received her education in the parochial schools and in Jacksonville high school. The groom is a resident of Woodson and his standing in that community is deservedly high. He is a young man whose habits of industry have brought an ever increasing measure of success. He is the son of John Sheehan of Woodson and received his education in the county schools.

Collison-Dickins.

J. P. Collison of Exeter and Miss Mabel C. Dickins of Chapin were married by Rev. J. W. Priest at the court house Wednesday. The groom

WAR NEWS SUMMARIZED

Again the operations along the western front in France are being carried out mainly between artillery units of the belligerents. The infantry activity, what little there is of it, is by patrol parties in which only small bits of territory have been attacked. In one of these minor attacks the Canadians have occupied an additional trench astride the Lens-Arras road, but in another attempt to bite further into the Lens sector they were repulsed, according to the German war office.

Reciprocal bombardments of considerable intensity continue to prevail along the Aisne front and in Champagne and there has been a renewal of the big gun fire in the Avocourt sector northwest of Verdun.

In Asiatic plateau zone of the Austro-Italian theater the Austrian artillery has shattered positions taken recently by the Italians and have re-occupied them. The fighting was on Monte Ortigara and the Austrians asserted they captured more than 1800 prisoners.

The Rome war office in admitting the withdrawal of the Italians, says that the destroyed positions afforded no shelter to the Italians from the fire of the Austrian artillery.

Lively fighting continues between the Russians and Austro-Germans on the eastern front, particularly in Galicia south of the Tarnopol railway and along the Narayevka river. The operations on the Macedonian front continue of minor importance and there is nothing to be gleaned from the reports of the belligerents to indicate that a general engagement is brewing. There have, however, been several smart skirmishes, and one attack by the enemy preceded by a violent bombardment against the French positions. It was repulsed. Mines of Teutonic allied submarines are responsible for the sinking last week of twenty one British vessels of more than 1600 tons each and seven under 1600 tons, according to the weekly British admiralty statement.

ILLINOIS CHRISTIAN

Rock Island, Ill., June 27.—The vanguard of the Illinois Christian Endeavor hosts arrived here today and committees began the preliminary work of the annual convention of the state organization, which will open tomorrow for a four-day session. Among the leading speakers at the convention will be Dr. Francis E. Clark, founder and head of the society; Daniel A. Poling of Boston, also an officer of the international organization, and Karl Lehmann of Alabama.

NEBRASKA STATE GOLF

Lincoln, Neb., June 27.—Play is scheduled to start here today in the annual tournament of the Nebraska State Golf association, and the usually large and prominent field of players from all over the state is expected to take part in the qualifying round. The tournament will be conducted along the same lines as the annual championship competition of the association, but no titles are to be awarded.

COMMENCEMENT AT ANN ARBOR

Ann Arbor, Mich., June 27.—President Livingston Farrand of the University of Colorado, who was recently selected by the Rockefeller Institute to direct a campaign against tuberculosis in France, will deliver the commencement address tomorrow at the graduation day exercises of the University of Michigan. A large number of the 1,200 members of the senior class to receive diplomas will not be present at the exercises, as many have left the university to enter the Government service.

COLLEGE LANDSCAPE ARTISTS

Madison, Wis., June 27.—Delegates from many of the leading universities and colleges of the country are attending the first national conference of college workers in landscape art, which met at the University of Wisconsin today for a session that will continue thru the remainder of the week.

COAL MINERS' STRIKE ENDS

Calgary, Alta., June 27.—The strike of 8,000 coal miners in Western Canada which has been in progress since April 12, ended today when Commissioner W. H. Armstrong, appointed by the government to investigate and take any action deemed necessary ordered immediate resumption of operations in all mines affected.

The order which is directed to the operators will result in an increase of 22 1/2 percent in wages. — Danger of a serious coal shortage which might hamper movement of the 1917 crop caused the government to take action it was said.

REMOVE IMPORT DUTIES

Mexico City, June 27.—By order of the government all import duties were removed last night from articles of prime necessity, including foodstuffs, from July 1, September 31. Import duties were also removed on gasoline and higher derivative of petroleum. This places the refiners in Mexico in competition with refiners in the United States and undoubtedly brought about the sudden rise here in the price of gasoline from 21 to fifty centavos per litre or approximately fifty cents a gallon.

RED CROSS MEMBERSHIPS CONTINUE TO COME

Number Has Now Reached 6600
Mark—Committee Believes 700
More Names are in Sight—Canvassing Work to Continue.

The total number of Red Cross memberships thus far received at the Red Cross shop is 6,600. Last night Chairman Crabtree of the organization committee said that assurances had been received of at least 700 additional names, which will mean a total membership of 7,300. Workers will keep busy and an earnest effort will be made before the week is over to secure the desired enrollment of 7,500. Reports have not yet been received from the residence district canvassers in the first and third wards.

There are incidents occurring daily at the Red Cross shop to indicate the general interest in the movement. Yesterday a minister was one of the callers at the shop and took out three memberships in the name of his children, explaining that he had recently received an unexpected marriage fee of $43 and wanted to spend it in this good way.

A number of instances have been heard of where residents were expecting canvassers who failed to come. If such persons will telephone the Red Cross shop the committee will be pleased to immediately send a representative with the desired card and tuition. If this plan is followed it will materially aid the committee in the effort to make the canvass thorough.

For the work of distributing membership cards today six automobiles are needed and 15 or 20 boys. Car owners and boys who are willing to give service in this way are requested to call at the Red Cross shop.

Entertain for

Miss Scherpeltz. As Miss Sophia Scherpeltz is soon to leave Passavant hospital where she is recovering from an operation, she and Verne Mulligan decided to give an entertainment in her honor at the home of Miss Maddox, 286 Sandusky street, Tuesday evening. About twenty-five guests were present, mainly nurses who had been happily associated with Miss Scherpeltz and the occasion was every way pleasant. The evening was spent socially and nice refreshments were served. In the decorations and refreshments the national colors were predominant and the entire occasion was most delightful.

Miss Mary Black

Entertains Gleasers. The Gleasers of Ebenezer M. E. Sunday school were pleasantly entertained Wednesday afternoon by Miss Mary Black at her home, north of the city. There was good attendance and after the business a program was carried out with music by Miss Beatrice Standley, humorous reading by Miss Mary Black and music by Miss Sophronia Hughes. Delicious refreshments were served and then the class adjourned to hold the next meeting in two weeks at the home of Miss Pearl Bridgman.

HOT WEATHER— BUT IT'S TIME TO TALK ABOUT COAL For Winter

Hard coal is the only fuel on which the price is normal. It is selling at $9.25 per ton for furnace size, just the same as last year and the year before.

The price of coke is double that of last year. Soft coal is selling at figure nearly double the usual price.

WHY NOT BURN HARD COAL AND WHY NOT BUY IT BEFORE AN INCREASE IN FREIGHT COMPELS AN INCREASE IN PRICE?

N. M. KENNEDY DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Death of Well Known Resident and Pioneer Settler Took Place at the Home of Dr. Ogram Wednesday.

Naaman L. Kennedy died Wednesday evening at 11:30 o'clock at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Ogram, 1106 West Lafayette avenue. Death followed an illness of long duration which was complicated by the diseases incident to old age. Mr. Kennedy was one of the county's pioneers and lived a life which earned him the highest respect of all who knew him.

Mr. Kennedy was born in Trumbull county, O., May 1, 1831, and came to Illinois by the water route, going down the Ohio and up the Mississippi and Illinois rivers and landing in Meredosia in 1853. He went soon afterwards to Arcadia and was for a time engaged in the wagon business.

In 1855 he was married to Miss Emily Johnson and the couple began housekeeping on a farm north of Arcadia. It was there that Mr. Kennedy made his home until the death of his wife in 1909. Five children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy, all of whom survive. They are: William Z. Kennedy, Wilmore Kan.; Lora H. Ogram, Jacksonville; James H. Kennedy, Muskogee, Okla.; Daniel E. Kennedy, this city, and John E. Kennedy of Arcadia.

Mr. Kennedy was a man of strong conviction and devout Christian character. He was a member of the Methodist church for over sixty years. His many days were marked with great usefulness and during his eighty-six years he witnessed many changes and improvements in farming, transportation, communication and manner of living.

The funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the home of Dr. Ogram and the burial will be made in Arcadia cemetery.

Miss Groves will teach in the stenographic department, taking her position in September.

His word the war department began to move. General Pershing was summoned quietly to Washington. His arrival created some speculation in the press but at the request of Secretary Baker the newspapers generally refrained from discussion of this point. There were a thousand and other activities afoot in the department at the time. All the business of preparing for the military registration of ten million men, of providing quarters and instructors for nearly 50,000 prospective officers for fire arms and equipment for millions of troops yet to be organized of expanding the regular army to full war strength, of preparing and recruiting the national guard for war that was at hand.

Move Without Publicity
General Pershing set up the first headquarters of the American expeditionary forces in a little office hardly large enough to hold himself and his personal staff. There, with the aid of the general staff of Secretary Baker and of the chiefs of war department bureaus the plans were worked out. Announcement of the sending of the force under General Pershing was made May 18. There came a day when General Pershing was no longer in the department. Officers of the general staff suddenly were missed from their desks. No word of this was reported. Then came word from England that Pershing and his officers were there. All was carried thru without publicity. Other matters relating to the expedition were carried out without a word of publicity. The regiments that were to go with General Pershing were all selected before he left and moving toward the sea coast from the border. Other regiments also were moving north, east and west to the points where they were to be expanded and the movements of the troops who were to be first in France were obscured in all this hurrying of troop trains over the land.

Great shipments of war supplies began to assemble at the embarkation ports. Liners suddenly were taken off their regular runs with no announcement. A great amount was made ready, supplied, equipped, transports, loaded with men and guns and sent to sea, all with virtually no mention from the press.

Navy Bears Share
The navy bears its full share in the achievement. From the time the troop ships left their docks and headed toward the sea responsibility for the lives of their thousands of men rested on the officers and crews of the fighting ships that moved beside them or swept free the sea lanes before them. As they pushed on toward the zone where German submarines lay in wait every precaution that trained minds of the navy could devise was taken and the news from France today shows that the plans were well laid. While his troops were embarking or steaming toward their destination, General Pershing and his staff, supplemented by a special corps of general staff officers have been busy in France preparing the way for the new army that is to fling itself soon against the German lines. The camp sites have been selected, the details of the final training to be given before the move to the front begins have been worked out and the question of supply and transportation lines studied. Regions of the national armies composed of railway workers and engineers will aid in that work. They too have been created in a few weeks' time.

The war department has no announcement to make as to General Pershing's disposition of his forces. Presumably that has been left to him to decide in conference with the French General Staff and with officials of the British army. The French troops will be an independent force co-operating with the allies. It has been suggested that the American forces might be placed between the French and British forces as a connecting link, but the exigencies of the planned campaigns will govern that question.

Schram's auction sale of jewelry will close tonight. Get in on the bargains.

JUBILEE LUNCHEON

The Jubilee Luncheon given by the Woman's Missionary society of the Jacksonville district at Grace church Tuesday proved a very interesting occasion. The luncheon was served at noon and then Mrs. M. B. Keplinger presiding the program was carried out. Mrs. E. G. Coon discussed "Our Part in the War," and an address was made by Mr. Kingsley Pease. The third address was "A Message from West China" by Miss Dorothy Jones of Chungking. Several musical selections added to the interest and pleasure of the occasion.

JACKSONVILLE VISITED BY HEAVY STORM

Street Car Traffic Held Up—Minor Damages Reported From Many Places

One of the heaviest rains of recent years accompanied the storm which struck Jacksonville yesterday evening shortly after nine o'clock. Reports from nearby towns indicate that the rain was general. Large limbs were blown from trees in many parts of the city. At the North End pumping station a window pane was blown from a window of the engine house by the force of the wind. At 1:30 o'clock the rain was still falling and it seemed probable that the total night's rainfall would be record-breaking.

Street car traffic was stopped for a time during the evening. A large limb broke down the trolley cable near the West State street switch. Just north of Greenwood avenue the trolley was down for a time and traffic was delayed all over the city for a time. Wires were down in many parts of the county and telephone service suffered.

The rain played havoc with several social events. A dance at the park was carried on under difficulties and at Strawn's Crossing, where more than a hundred people had gathered for a platform dance, the approaching storm sent autos hurrying homeward.

ECONOMY PLAN AT SCHOOL FOR DEAF

Twenty Three Employees Will Be Temporarily Relieved From Duty—Board of Administration Has Made the Order.

The state board of administration has worked out a plan for reducing expenses at a number of the state institutions, especially during the summer months. Supt. Gillett of the School for the Deaf, has therefore received instructions which affect twenty three employees of that school. These employees are to be laid off at the end of this month until further notice. Presumably the order will apply only for the summer. Those who will thus temporarily sever their connection with the school are as follows:

Cannot Live at Institution

An order from the board also specifies that the following who are to be retained are to secure their maintenance outside of the institution if they are not already doing so. The understanding is that in these cases an appropriate increase in wages will be granted. This list includes the following:

Alfred Anderson, kitchen laborer; Robert Blue, fireman; Elias Brainer, farm laborer; C. S. Burdick, chief engineer; W. S. Camp, foreman of printing; Sidney Christian, pressman; F. H. Cogswell, instruction, carpentry; James Hadden, farm; Hiram Huff, kitchen laborer; Lee Huff, farm laborer; Everett Kimmel, fireman; Timothy McLaughlin, farm; J. W. McConnell, instructor, painting; Robert Mann, farm; Everett Mann, fireman; Jancy Mann, domestic; Frank Massey, farm; Frank Mather, foreman of grounds; Matt Minter, instructor shoemaking; Hettie I. Patterson, stenographer; Charles Peterson, store-keeper; John Peterson, driver; Orpha Ray, domestic; Paul Seymour, farm; James Stubbinsfield, dairyman; Bertha Tankersley, domestic; B. White, watchman; Rhoda Woodall, assistant matron; M. L. Denny, laborer, heating and light plant.

Supt. Gillett also has been instructed that every employee shall perform his or her full duty to the institution and in cases where these requirements are not fulfilled the services are to be dispensed with. ## PLATINUM IS OBTAINED FROM OLD FALSE TEETH

Remarkable Increase in Price of This Metal Has Caused New Industry to Spring up.

No doubt many persons have read during recent weeks advertisements which have appeared in many papers for false teeth. The Journal is carrying such an advertisement now in the classified column. The Quincy Whig thus explains the sudden demand for old teeth:

Platinum in the open market has an intrinsic value four times as much as gold and that explains why nearly every newspaper in the country carries an advertisement such as the above, taken from The Whig. The junk man wants the platinum that he hopes to find in the discarded grinders.

Quadrupled Price
The use of platinum in dental work is not as common as it was ten or more years ago when "pins" were made of platinum. Then platinum was worth to the dentist perhaps 90 cents per pennyweight. Now it is worth as junk $4.35 per pennyweight. Gold is worth about 90 cents per pennyweight.

The tiny specks of platinum in a set of false teeth might escape the scrutiny of the one who did not know where to find it but the junk man is wise and will find it if it is within range of his vision.

Recently a speculator in junk, although he does not advertise as such, has gathered up a lot of refuse stuff in which he knew there was quite likely to be a quantity of platinum. He gathered from the many pounds of baser metals a cupful of platinum which he carried to Chicago and sold it for approximately $400. The man who lacked the technical information concerning the value of the metal would not have given ten cents for the lot. Platinum has grown to such a high price that dentists substituted something else for it, a combination of nickel and platinum or something of the kind which serves the purpose of the more valued metal.

Resists Intense Heat

Dentists used platinum for the reason that such an intense degree of heat is necessary to fuse it, for false teeth are placed in a furnace and subjected to a degree of heat that will fuse many metals but does not fuse platinum. That quality has made platinum desirable for spark plugs in automobiles and other places where electrical contact is to be resisted and with the ever-growing demand for the material the prices advanced until even such tiny quantities as the dentists used it was prohibitive.

If in a telephone switchboard the uninformed man saw a tiny bit of white metal about the size of the head of a pin, he would attack it with a hammer and would not attach an especial value to it but the wise junkman would be able to tell if it was platinum and outbid others for the junk.

SAVE THE HOME GARDEN SURPLUS

Plans for Conserving Vegetable Food Not Eaten Fresh Should Be Made Now by Home Gardeners, Says U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Washington, D. C. June 27.—The crop of vegetables from home gardens promises to be unusually large in practically all sections of the country this year, says the United States Department of Agriculture in a statement just issued. Home gardeners, therefore, it is pointed out, should begin now to plan so that the products raised by them will be used to the best possible advantage, without waste.

"There is likely to be an unusually large production of vegetables from small home gardens in most communities this year," says the statement. "Home gardeners, therefore, should lay their plans carefully so that they will be in a position at the appropriate time to make efficient use of their garden produce, both by immediate consumption and by preservation by canning, drying, or in other ways, so that no good food will be wasted."

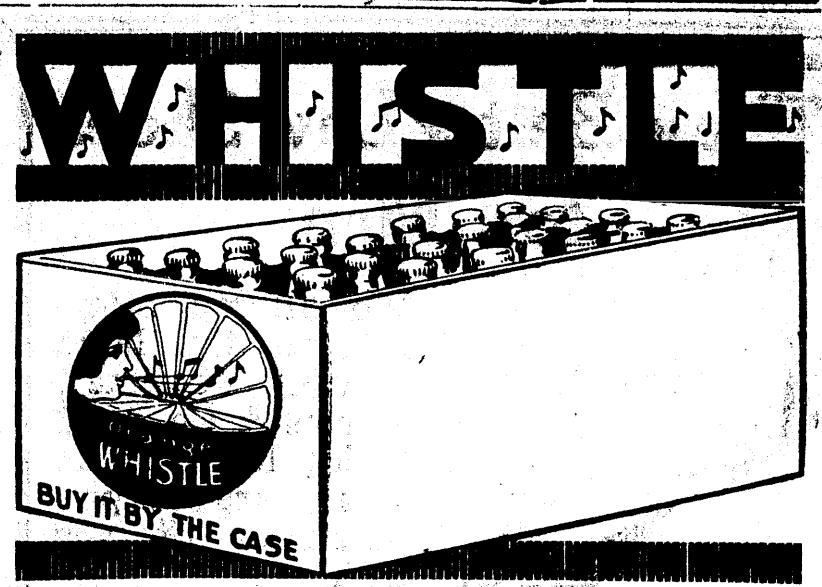

"A very material saving can be effected in the food bill in many instances by having the meals consist more largely of the fresh home-grown vegetables and less extensively of the non-perishable foods bought from grocery stores. By following this plan, also, garden owners will relieve somewhat the demand for the non-perishable foods."

Even with liberal use in the family diet in a fresh state, however, there will be considerable surpluses of vegetables from many home gardens. These should be saved in some way. Canning is the method most usually employed, but it is possible that cans and jars cannot be obtained in sufficient quantities this year to pack the surplus perishables. In such cases many products easily can be preserved by drying.

AT WESTMINSTER

Announcement has been made that communion services will be observed at Westminster church next Sunday morning.

his word the war department began to move. General Pershing was summoned quietly to Washington. His arrival created some speculation in the press but at the request of Secretary Baker the newspapers generally refrained from discussion of this point. There were a thousand other activities afoot in the department at the time. All the business of preparing for the military registration of ten million men, of providing quarters and instructors for nearly 50,000 prospective officers for fire arms and equipment for millions of troops yet to be organized of expanding the regular army to full war strength, of preparing and recruiting the national guard for war that was at hand.

Move Without Publicity
General Pershing set up the first headquarters of the American expeditionary forces in a little office hardly large enough to hold himself and his personal staff. There with the aid of the general staff of Secretary Baker and of the chiefs of war department bureaus the plans were worked out. Announcement of the sending of the force under General Pershing was made May 13.

There came a day when General Pershing was no longer in the department. Officers of the general staff suddenly were missed from their desks. No word of this was reported. Then came word from England that Pershing and his officers were there. All was carried thru without publicity. Other matters relating to the expedition were carried out without a word of publicity. The regiments that were to go with General Pershing were all selected before he left and moving toward the sea coast from the border.

Other regiments also were moving north, east and west to the points where they were to be embarked and the movements of the troops who were to be first in France were obscured in all this hurrying of troop trains over the land.

Great shipments of war supplies began to assemble at the embarkation ports. Liners suddenly were taken off their regular runs with no announcement. A great armada was made ready, supplied, equipped as transports, loaded with men and guns and sent to sea, all with virtually no mention from the press.

Navy Bears Its Full Share
The navy bears its full share in the achievement. From the time the troop ships left their docks and headed toward the sea responsibility for the lives of their thousands of men rested on the officers and crews of the fighting ships that moved beside them or swept free the sea lanes before them. As they pushed on toward the zone where German submarines lay in wait every precaution that trained minds of the navy could devise was taken and the news from France today shows that the plans were well laid. While his troops were embarking or steaming toward their destination, General Pershing and his staff, supplemented by a special corps of general staff officers have been busy in France preparing the way for the new army that is to fling itself soon against the German lines. The camp sites have been selected, the details of the final training to be given before the move to the front begins have been worked out and the question of supply and transportation lines studied. Regions of the national armies composed of railway workers and engineers will aid in that work. They too have been created in a few weeks' time.

The war department has no announcement to make as to General Pershing's disposition of his forces. Presumably that has been left to him to decide in conference with the French General Staff and with officials of the British army. The French troops will be an independent force co-operating with the allies. It has been suggested that the American forces might be placed between the French and British forces as a connecting link, but the exigencies of the planned campaigns will govern that question.

Schram's auction sale of jewelry will close tonight. Get in on the bargains.

JUBILEE LUNCHEON
The Jubilee luncheon given by the Woman's Missionary society of the Jacksonville district at Grace church Tuesday proved a very interesting occasion. The luncheon was served at noon and then Mrs. M. B. Keplinger presiding the program was carried out. Mrs. E. G. Coon discussed "Our Part in the War," and an address was made by Mr. Kingsley Pease. The third address was "A Message from West China" by Miss Dorothy Jones of Chumking. Several musical selections added to the interest and pleasure of the occasion.

JACKSONVILLE VISITED BY HEAVY STORM

Street Car Traffic Held Up—Minor Damages Reported From Many Places

One of the heaviest rains of recent years accompanied the storm which struck Jacksonville yesterday evening shortly after nine o'clock. Reports from nearby towns indicate that the rain was general. Large limbs were blown from trees in many parts of the city. At the North End pumping station a window pane was blown from a window of the engine house by the force of the wind. At 1:30 o'clock the rain was still falling and it seemed probable that the total night's rainfall would be record-breaking.

Street car traffic was stopped for a time during the evening. A large limb broke down the trolley cable near the West State street switch. Just north of Greenwood avenue the trolley was down for a time and traffic was delayed all over the city for a time. Wires were down in many parts of the county and telephone service suffered.

The rain played havoc with several social events. A dance at the park was carried on under difficulties and at Strawn's Crossing, where more than a hundred people had gathered for a platform dance, the approaching storm sent autos hurrying homeward.

ECONOMY PLAN AT SCHOOL FOR DEAF

Twenty Three Employees Will Be Temporarily Relieved From Duty—Board of Administration Has Made the Order.

The state board of administration has worked out a plan for reducing expenses at a number of the state institutions, especially during the summer months. Supt. Gillett of the School for the Deaf, has therefore received instructions which affect twenty three employees of that school. These employees are to be laid off at the end of this month until further notice. Presumably the order will apply only for the summer. Those who will thus temporarily sever their connection with the school are as follows:

Cannot Live at Institution
An order from the board also specifies that the following who are to be retained are to secure their maintenance outside of the institution if they are not already doing so. The understanding is that in these cases a proportionate increase in wages will be granted. This list includes the following:

Alfred Anderson, kitchen laborer; Robert Blue, fireman; Elias Braner, farm laborer; C. S. Burdick, chief engineer; W. S. Camp, foreman of printing; Sidney Christian, pressman; F. H. Cogswell, instruction, carpentry; James Hadden, farm; Hiram Huff, kitchen laborer; Lee Huff, farm laborer; Everett Kimmel, fireman; Timothy McLaughlin, farm; J. W. McConnell, instructor, painting; Robert Mann, farm; Everett Mann, fireman; Jancy Mann, domestic; Frank Massey, farm; Frank Mather, foreman of grounds; Matthew Minter, instructor shoemaking; Hettie I. Patterson, stenographer; Charles Peterson, store-keeper; John Peterson, driver; Orpha Ray, domestic; Paul Seymour, farm; James Stubblefield, dairyman; Bertha Tankersley, domestic; J. B. White, watchman; Rhoda Woodall, assistant matron; M. L. Denny, laborer, heating and light plant.

Supt. Gillett also has been instructed that every employee shall perform his or her full duty to the institution and in cases where these requirements are not fulfilled the services are to be dispensed with. Annual vacations will be allowed employees who have earned such vacations by serving for the period required under the rules.

M. C. COHN NAMED STATE DIRECTOR OF HOUSING

Man Well Known Here Has Just Been Appointed To Important Position in California.

The Los Angeles Examiner has the following about the recent appointment of Mark C. Cohn to the post of director of housing in California. Mr. Cohn has many friends in Jacksonville and is well known here. His wife was Miss H. Norwood Headen who is the daughter of Mrs. T. C. Headen of 342 West North street.

The Examiner article is as follows:

"Men connected with the building trades in Los Angeles heard with mingled emotions yesterday the news that Mark C. Cohn, chief deputy in the city's building department for the last twelve years, had been offered the position of director of the State Housing and Immigration Commission and that he had decided to accept it. One and all, they agreed that no better appointment could have been made, but, while they felt like congratulating the state on securing Cohn for the place and Cohn on the opportunities for real service his new position will offer him, they also felt like commiserating among themselves over his departure.

"There was just one thing about the Examiner's report of Mr. Cohn's intended move that did not surprise them. That was the information that he had refused an offer of $6,000 a year to become manager of a Los Angeles industrial establishment to accept the state position which will pay him in cash, only half that sum. It was like him, they explained, to do that.

"Mark Cohn, it was pointed out, is already thoroughly familiar with the work he will undertake. It is work along lines which he has made a hobby as well as a study. He was the author of the state's three housing bills. He is an expert alike on building legislation and on building operations in their practical form. Therefore, they said, he is the right man for the place.

"Mr. Cohn, for a year and a half, was executive secretary of the State Housing Institute, and in that capacity became widely acquainted with men and women all over California who are interested in housing problems. This acquaintance doubtless will stand him in good stead in his new position.

"He has not yet tendered his formal resignation to Superintendent Backus, but will do so shortly, and probably will step into his new position on July 1, with the beginning of the state's new fiscal year."

FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION PLANS

The Program Finally Decided On; a Band Concert Day and Evening and Other Features

The persons interested in the celebration of the Fourth of July held a meeting yesterday and decided definitely what would be the program at Nichols park; that is, they decided on the greater part of it leaving room for additions.

After consulting a number of persons it was decided that it would be a good idea to attempt to have fireworks as they have advanced so in price that what was bought last year for $250 would cost $400 this year so that feature was reluctantly abandoned.

It was decided that something else should be substituted and accordingly Fred Goodrick was asked to be present and his band was hired for the afternoon and evening till 10:30 which will insure pleasant entertainment for everybody. Picnic parties will be welcome all day and games and various pastimes will supply amusement for those who desire it. By this means it is hoped to give our nation's birthday due recognition and at the same time conserve the resources which would be used if fireworks were a part of the program.

The persons interested in the celebration earnestly hope there will be a large attendance and a general good time enjoyed by every one. It was hard to give up the fireworks which have been such an attractive feature in years past but it seemed best. There will be swimming for both boys and girls and for the girls a tent will be pitched on the opposite side of the lake and every effort made to have it suitable and attractive for them if they care to use it. Come everybody with well filled baskets which will be checked free of charge.

The jewelry auction will close at Schram's tonight. Attend the sale this afternoon and tonight. Your last chances for buying jewelry at your own price.

AN AMUSING INCIDENT.

A traveling man was telling an amusing incident that came under his notice a few days ago at Mason City. A number of persons were at the railroad station waiting for a train and near by was a very elegant and costly automobile of foreign make. Various remarks were passed upon it by the men at the station. "Nighly expensive machine that," "Yes, it cost right around $25,000."

"Who would pay that much for a car?"

"Oh, it belongs to a distiller of Peoria, I am told."

"Repairs must be expensive in that case."

"That's nothing to him, he is so rich he can afford to throw it away. Wonder if it's costly to run."

A quiet individual who had little to say offered some information regarding the car and finally some one asked him how he knew so much about it and he replied:

"I am the owner, that's all."

And then the listeners discovered they had been talking in the presence of the rich distiller of Peoria.

LESSON IN MOTOR VALVES AT THE OPERA HOUSE

A large and well pleased audience enjoyed two entertainments at the Grand Opera House yesterday when in addition to the regular bill there were thrown on the screen a series of pictures showing the operation of the Sleeve Valve motor as used in the Overland car by Mr. Willis, inventor. A good many came in from the country and many from the city also were in attendance. J. F. Claus brought the pictures here at a considerable expense and the result well justified the outlay necessary.

The story of the Sleeve Valve motor is deeply interesting portraying, as it does, the ingenious operation of a very useful device in connection with the Overland car so widely distributed all over the continent. Mr. Claus was well pleased with the result of his enterprise.

As indicated there was a great deal of public interest in this picture story of the famous Knight sleeve-valve motor, and it was estimated that at least 1,500 people saw the pictures. The greater number of them thus secured a much more accurate idea than they had ever had before of motor construction. Mr. Claus entertained during the day A. F. Groebel of the Overland-Broadhead company of Springfield, who came to be present at the opera house. Mr. Groebel drove from Springfield in his Willys-Knight 3 cylinder car, which attracted a great deal of attention in the vicinity of the opera house where it was parked.

INTERESTING LETTER FROM U. S. SOLDIER

Lloyd Malone Writes His Mother How Things are Going in the Aviation Camp.

Mrs. Malone of this city has two sons who are doing her credit. One is learning to be an aviator and sends his mother an interesting letter from the aviation camp. In part it reads as follows:

Dear Mother:

Here it is Sunday and I am almost settled again. I have been raised to the next highest rank, sergeant. At present it is but an acting appointment but it may be permanent later. The reason I suppose we are not actually into our real work is because this branch of the service is absolutely new and there have been but few appropriations for this aviation service. In fact this camp is new, being organized March 1st, and the food to feed 5,338 men here has been bought with money appropriated for other purposes. Recently congress appropriated three or four millions dollars to fix up the camp and work was begun in earnest but yesterday. They are laying out the ground for barracks today and the food is 100 per cent better. When we first came down here we were only drawing 25 rations and poor rations at that. No facilities for bathing, drinking water or in fact anything for the cleanliness and comfort of the men.

"There are men here who have been enlisted for two and three years who have not been paid 50 cents. But from the way things are going now a great change has been wrought. At least we can have shower baths and drinking water and plenty of good food. The climate has affected several men but they are beginning to get used to things now and we are getting along better. This camp comprises some 780 acres and the government is figuring on buying up additional land to enlarge it, and make this the greatest aviation camp in the world. They are preparing to train 60,000 men in this camp alone, besides the various other camps in the country. Between 9 and 11 the air is filled with machines and the noise is so great that it is hard to drill the men. They can hardly hear the commands. I have a voice like thunder now, but I hope it will get back to usual again some day.

"Then too, we are handicapped in not having commissioned officers in charge of companies. I got a letter from the bunch at the Rex pool room yesterday and you should have seen it. I am going to send it home and I want you to keep it for me. It reaches clear across the tent. Some letter. The bunch are sending me a box of cigars. Some bunch, don't you think? I sure was surprised when I got it.

"The weather doesn't change a bit here. The heat is still most prevalent and I am getting blacker all the time. I am sending pictures home now and then. I am keeping a diary and I expect to write it all up when I get back.

Lovingly,
Lloyd.

HERE ON LEGAL BUSINESS

Assistant Attorney General Middlekauff from Springfield was in the city yesterday looking after some inheritance tax matters at the court house. Mr. Middlekauff was a classmate of J. Marshall Miller and they had a pleasant visit recalling their student days.

In connection with the other work of the office, Attorney General Brundage has let it be known to the attorneys of the state that he and his assistants will furnish them certain lines of information which is only available from the records in Springfield. This service is one greatly appreciated by the lawyers and often results in saving them a special trip to the state capital to look up references needed.

Miss Thiele says that the association now has a number of bright colored children for whom homes are especially desired. The association of course has white children for placing all the time. The greater number of them thus secured a much more accurate idea than they had ever had before of motor construction. Mr. Claus entertained during the day A. F. Groebel of the Overland-Broadhead company of Springfield who came to be present at the opera house. Mr. Groebel drove from Springfield in his Willys-Knight 8 cylinder car, which attracted a great deal of attention in the vicinity of the opera house where it was parked.

INTERESTING LETTER FROM U. S. SOLDIER

Lloyd Malone Writes His Mother How Things are Going in the Aviation Camp.

Mrs. Malone of this city has two sons who are doing her credit. One is learning to be an aviator and sends his mother an interesting letter from the aviation camp. In part it reads as follows:

Camp Kelley, South Antonio, Tex. Dear Mother:

Here it is Sunday and I am almost settled again. I have been raised to the next highest rank, sergeant. At present it is but an appointment but it may be permanent later. The reason I suppose we are not actually into our real work is because this branch of the service is absolutely new and there have been but few appropriations for this aviation service. In fact this camp is new, being organized March 1st, and the food to feed 5,538 men here has been bought with money appropriated for other purposes. Recently congress appropriated three or four millions dollars to fix up the camp and work was begun in earnest but yesterday. They are laying out the ground for barracks today and the food is 100 per cent better. When we first came down here we were only drawing 2-3 rations and poor rations at that. No facilities for bathing, drinking water or in fact, anything for the cleanliness and comfort of the men.

"There are men here who have been enlisted for two and three months who have not been paid 5c yet. But from the way things are going now a great change has been wrought. At least we can have shower baths and drinking water and plenty of good food. The climate has affected several men but they are beginning to get used to things now and we are getting along better. This camp comprises some 750 acres and the government is figuring on buying up additional land to enlarge it, and make this the greatest aviation camp in the world. They are preparing to train 60,000 men in this camp alone, besides the various other camps in the country. Between 9 and 11 the air is filled with machines and the noise is so great that it is hard to drill the men. They can hardly hear the commands. I have a voice like thunder now, but I hope it will get back to usual again some day.

"Then too, we are handicapped in not having commissioned officers in charge of companies. I got a letter from the bunch at the Rex pool room yesterday and you should have seen it. I am going to send it home and I want you to keep it for me. It reaches clear across the tent. Some letter. The bunch are sending me a box of cigars. Some bunch, don't you think? I sure was surprised when I got it.

"The weather doesn't change a bit here. The heat is still most prevalent and I am getting blacker all the time. I am sending pictures home now and then. I am keeping a diary and I expect to write it all up when I get back.

Lovingly,
Lloyd.

HERE ON LEGAL BUSINESS

Assistant Attorney General Middlekauff from Springfield was in the city yesterday looking after some inheritance tax matters at the court house. Mr. Middlekauff was a classmate of J. Marshall Miller and they had a pleasant visit recalling their student days.

In connection with the other work of the office, Attorney General Brundage has let it be known to the attorneys of the state that he and his assistants will furnish them certain lines of information which is only available from the records in Springfield. This service is one greatly appreciated by the lawyers and often results in saving them a special trip to the state capital to look up references needed.

SEEKS AID FOR HOMELESS CHILDREN

Miss Florence M. Thiele, a representative of the Illinois Children's Home and Aid society of Chicago, has been in the city for a number of days. The society is approved by the state board of administration and placed 165 children in good family homes during the first eight months of last year. This year it has under supervision in family homes 1,296 children. This does not include approximately 300 children taken over from the White Hall association. Miss Thiele says that the association now has a number of bright colored children for whom homes are especially desired. The association of course has white children for placing all the time. The Chicago address is 1818 Republic Building.

LIQUOR SHIPMENTS TO DRY STATES BARRED

New Federal Law Goes Into Effect
July 1st—Mails Closed to Advertising Liquors in Certain States

Washington, D. C., June 27.—Business aggregating millions of dollars a year in the form of liquor shipments from "wet" localities to neighboring "dry" states will be wiped out by the Federal law, approved March 3, which on and after New Sunday closes the United States mailed advertisements or solicitations for the purchase of alcoholic liquors.

The new law will stop shipments of liquor in any form into Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, Colorado, Georgia, Idaho, Iowa, Kansas, Maine, Mississippi, Oklahoma, North Carolina, North Dakota, Oregon, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia, Washington and West Virginia.

Utah will be added to the list one month hence; Indiana on April 3, 1918; Michigan on April 30, 1918; New Hampshire on May 1, 1918 and Montana on Dec. 31, 1918. Thus by the beginning of next year half of the states of the Union will be dry, and in half of them the law of March 3, 1917 will be generally effective.

More than this, the law to come into effect next Sunday will be operative in numerous townships, cities, counties, villages and districts of states that are not generally dry, but in which, under local option laws, local prohibition exists.

The Postoffice Department has placed a broad construction upon the new act. Newspapers and other publications of general circulation that continue to accept liquor advertisements will be obliged to either perfect their machinery of circulation so as to make invasion of prohibited territory impossible, or run the risk of incurring severe penalties.

Section 5 of the law provides that no letter, postal card, pamphlet, or publication of any kind, containing any advertisement of spirituous, vinous, malted, fermented or other intoxicating liquors of any kind or any of them, shall be deposited in, or carried by the mails of the United States, or to be delivered by any postmaster or letter carrier, when addressed or directed to any person, firm, corporation, or association, or other addressee, at any place or point in any state or territory of the United States, at which it is, by law in force in the state or territory on July 1, 1917, unlawful to advertise or solicit for such liquors, or any of them, respectively.

The publisher who violates this act, personally or thru an agent, renders himself liable to a fine of $1,000 and six months' imprisonment for the first offense, and to imprisonment for a year for each subsequent offense, trial of such cases to be held either in the district in which the matter was mailed or in the district to which it was carried by mail for delivery.

The ruling of the Postoffice Department that the new act applies to localities where prohibition exists thru local option, as well as to states that are wholly dry, sustains the viewpoint of the prohibition leaders that the law should be so interpreted as to prevent distillers, brewers and other liquor interests from defeating local option laws by use of a Federal agency over which the local law has no control.

Any drink containing alcohol has been defined by the Postoffice De-

WOULD HAVE HER ASSOCIATES KNOW

"I Want to Tell Them of Tanlac", Mrs. Nifong
Asserts

"I've gained so much good from one bottle of Tanlac that I want my friends to try it and learn what a splendid medicine it really is," Mrs. Nifong, E. Nifong, well known woman of 322 East College avenue, told the Tanlac Man on June 20.

"My system was in a run down condition," Mrs. Nifong continued. "I suffered severely at times from acute indigestion. My nerves were in such a condition I couldn't sleep at night. Liver and kidney trouble often bothered me, too. I never felt like doing my housework, just seeming to lack the necessary ambition. "I knew that I needed a good tonic and as Tanlac was so highly recommended by local people I decided to try the new medicine. Well sir, one bottle of Tanlac has surely done me a lot of good. My liver and kidneys are working perfectly and the nervousness has been so much relieved that I can sleep fine at night. I never suffer from indigestion any more, either. I feel so much stronger, too, and go about my work without feeling the least fatigued. I've recommended Tanlac for my brother and he is now taking the new medicine. I feel sure he will be benefited as I was."

Tanlac is now being introduced in Jacksonville at the Coover-Shreve Drug Co., East Side store, where a special Tanlac representative is explaining the new medicine to the public daily. Tanlac also may be obtained at the West Side store of the Coover-Shreve Co. It is sold in Waverly at the Wyle Drug Co.; in New Berlin at the New Berlin Drug Co.; in Ashland at H. O. Brownback's; in Versailles at A. G. Bates'; in Chapin at F. P. McKinney's; in Roodhouse at W. D. Berry's; in White Hall at the City Drug store; in Bluffs at F. T. Curtis'; and in Pittsfield at J. H. ## OLD JACKSONVILLE

The Ellis House
By Ensey Moore

(Member of Illinois Historical Society.)

The older settlers of Jacksonville referred to a certain habitation as "The Ellis house."

It was built by the Rev. John M. Ellis, of whom, and his first wife, considerable mention has appropriately been made in this series of sketches.

Mr. Ellis came here, with his wife, nee Miss Frances Celeste Brard, in the summer of 1838. They lived in a white in a building which he referred to as a paragon erected by his "people," the members of the First Presbyterian church of Jacksonville. He gave up his pastorate in the fall of 1831.

Mr. Ellis bought the ground now known as lot 2 of Chandler's addition to Jacksonville, from Dr. E. C. Chandler, Oct. 1, 1830. The house must have been erected quite soon after. It was framed in Cincinnati at that time the business metropolis of the "Far West."

The house is still standing on the central lot, there being only three originally, on the north side of W. State street, between Church and Fayette streets.

The Baptist church now stands on the ground then occupied by the First Presbyterian church, a frame building erected during Mr. Ellis' service here; and that frame building now stands on the north end of the Baptist church lot, at the southwest corner of Church and Court streets. This frame building was dedicated as a church by the Presbyterians, June 19, 1831.

In this residence of Mr. Ellis, now just west of the Baptist church, the plans for the Jacksonville Female Academy were made in 1830, his wife having taught a school from which it was more or less descended, for some time previous.

In his residence took place

of his life, when, in 1833, his wife and two children died there of cholera. A relative, of the Conn family, of Mrs. Ellis, also died there the same season. This young woman was stricken while engaged in making bread.

The story of Mr. Ellis' bereavement has been so often told as to have become one of the best known events in the early history of Jacksonville.

But as a founder, if not the founder, of Illinois College, and with his wife a beginner of Jacksonville Female Academy, the name of Ellis should never be forgotten by Jacksonville, or in the history of Illinois.

Mr. Ellis made his home here, and was engaged in educational organization for some time after resigning his pastorate in 1831. But he sold his house to Stafford Smith whose last residence was in Meredosia, for many years. The deed was dated April 14, 1836, and in Detroit. "In the territory of Michigan." The deed was signed also by the second Mrs. Ellis, whose maiden name had been Josephine Moore, she being of the state of New Hampshire.

The Hon. Wm. C. Goudy, of Chicago, told the writer that Mr. Goudy's father's family occupied the house as their first residence in Jacksonville, in 1833. He thought they entered it, first as a home, next after the death of the Ellis, apostropher.

Mr. Stafford Smith, a native of Baltimore, Md., had married Miss Jane Porter McMackin, of Philadelphia, Pa., in 1835, and in May, 1836, Mr. Dennis McMackin, father-in-law of Mr. Smith, came with his family from Philadelphia, partament as intoxicating liquor with in the meaning of the new law. Methyl, wood and denatured alcohol are excepted. The Department has ruled also that the prohibition against advertisements applies to liquor for scientific, sacramental, medicinal and mechanical purposes.

Prohibitionists believe that the result of the new law will be virtually to wipe out the columns of the public press all liquor advertisements. This will be a great victory for national temperance, it is declared.

WARNING

All persons are warned against the premature celebration of the Fourth of July by discharging firearms, fireworks or fire crackers of any description in the city before the fourth day of July. Violators of the ordinance will be arrested and prosecuted.

A LONG AND USEFUL LIFE

The venerable Mrs. Mary J. Blunt has just passed her 89th birthday which she spent quietly at her home on South Prairie street. Not many persons are permitted to see as many years as has this good woman and though not very strong she is yet able to get about to a considerable degree and minister, as is her want, to the wants and needs of those about her. Mrs. Blunt is a devout and earnest Christian, eager to serve her Heavenly Master in any capacity, no matter how humble so it is of genuine use and she will have a few declining years she is faithfully rich reward in the other land. In cared for by her devoted daughter, Miss Olive, and the two are quietly enjoying the days that go by, each one bringing them nearer their home in the better land.

Elbert West of Tallula made a business trip to the city yesterday.

and that family made the Ellis house their first residence in Jacksonville. At that time the present Rockwell-Frost house was the only one from there to Gov. Duncan's, now known as the Kirby place.

It may be of some interest, as showing the value of real estate in those days, to state that the purchase price Mr. Smith paid Mr. Ellis was $1,500. There has been some additions made to the rear of the house since that time.

Mr. Smith sold the house, March 1, 1841, to

Jos. M. Alexander. The writer could not find the record of ownership again until Dec. 15, 1849, when Mr. David A. Smith sold the place to Jonathan Neely.

Mr. Neely was long known as one of our most prominent citizens. He was the first conductor on the Northern Cross railroad, and so the first in the great North West. He was afterwards town trustee and an alderman under the city organization. He was identified with a great deal of the history of this place. The writer is not sure when Mr. Neely first occupied the Ellis place, but Neely was living there in 1857. About that time there was a planing mill on North West street, north of the "Great Western railroad," and the mill was run by Massey, King, Neely & Co.—Perhaps from this association.

Horatio H. Massey

became the occupant of the Ellis house, and so continued until about 1862, when he went to Joliet or Lockport, Ill. Mr. Massey was a relative of the Massey families so long well known out west of this city, on the Mound road and Lovers Lane.

Marshall P. Ayers

occupied the place, perhaps during Mr. D. A. Smith's control of it, and there John A. Ayers was born, being the first child of Mr. and Mrs. Ayers.

The Robbs,

by which is meant David Robb and family, occupied the house some time after between 1845 and 1857. Mr. Robb was a well known merchant, a native of Pennsylvania, and the father of Miss Clara Robb, who became the first wife of the late Hon. William Brown, who died a few years ago. The Robbs were very prominent socially, there being some very pretty girls in the family.

As recalled by the writer,

Charles McDonald, brother of Alexander McDonald, succeeded Mr. Massey, about 1862 in the ownership of the Ellis house. Mr. McDonald was a merchant, had been a "49er" in California days, and was prominent as a church and Sunday school man. He died in the Fall of 1871, since which time his widow has continued her residence in the old house. Mrs. McDonald was a daughter of George Reick, an early settler, merchant and county officer. Her sister, Mrs. Ellen Reick Conn was born in Jacksonville. This city has been Mrs. McDonald's home most of her life. She married in 1848, and accompanied her husband to California along with those "Argonauts." One of Mrs. McDonald's sisters married Curtis F. Conn, whose mother was a step, or half sister of Mrs. Jno. M. Ellis.

The First Female Child

A Historic House.

The references given above show this old house to have been one of the most historic residences not only in Jacksonville, but in the state of Illinois, and its history runs back well thru the centennial of the Prairie State.

IN ACTIVE TRAINING AT INDIANA ARMY CAMP

First Few Weeks Devoted to Teaching Rudiments of Soldierly and Camp Life—Arrangements Made for William H. Taft and William J. Bryan to Speak Before the Men.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 27.—The several thousands of young men from West Virginia, Ohio, Kentucky and Indiana taking the officers reserve training corps course at Fort Benjamin Harrison are learning what they must do when they are sent to the front. The first several weeks of training were devoted to teaching them the rudiments of soldierly and camp life. Now they have been given picks and shovels and are being taught how to "dig themselves in," how to make themselves invisible to observers of an enemy and how best to approach an enemy and take him by surprise. Interspersed with the drills, digging, marching and other strenuous work, the cadets listen to lectures and study text books concerning warfare and the duties of officers. Their work practically fourteen hours a day five days a week.

The hard work of trench digging was not assigned to the young men until after the preliminary hardening training was gone through. The West Virginia and Ohio men engage in target practice and other work while the Kentucky-Indiana men dig. Then the work is reversed. The physical condition of the country surrounding the camp is adapted to a certain extent to what might be expected in active duty. After a hard rain it is very muddy. A small stream is near, and one company recently was led through the water neck deep in pursuit of an imaginary enemy. The trench digging is not make believe, but the actual work.

The reorganization of the camp was perfected at the end of about four weeks of training. What was known as the eighth and ninth training divisions now are designated at the eighth and ninth training regiments. West Virginia and Ohio men compose the eighth regiment and Kentucky-Indiana men the ninth. Each regiment consists of nine companies of infantry, three batteries of artillery and one troop of cavalry, although in reality all remain infantry for there are no guns for the artillery and no horses for the cavalry. Colored hat cords distinguish the men. The states have separate companies. What is known as the "Foreign Legion" was formed from men who came from states other than the four included in the territory assigned to this camp.

A survey of the men in the camp has been made and a card index compiled giving his name, address, and other information. The index shows that 90 percent are college men, and 75 percent are fraternity members. An equal number recorded church affiliations. Practically every man enrolled is a member of one or more clubs or organizations. The Masons, Knights of Columbus and other fraternal orders are represented widely. Through the recreation bureau preliminary arrangements have been made for William Howard Taft, and William Jennings Bryan to speak before the men. Both will be in Indianapolis early in August.

LIQUOR SHIPMENTS TO DRY STATES BARRED

New Federal Law Goes Into Effect
July 1st—Mails Closed to Advertising Liquors in Certain States

Washington, D. C., June 27.—Business aggregating millions of dollars a year in the form of liquor shipments from "wet" localities to neighboring "dry" states will be wiped out by the Federal law, approved March 3, which on and after next Sunday closes the United States mails to advertisements or solicitations for the purchase of alcoholic liquors.

The new law will stop shipments of liquor in any form into Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, Colorado, Georgia, Idaho, Iowa, Kansas, Maine, Mississippi, Oklahoma, North Carolina, North Dakota, Oregon, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia, Washington and West Virginia.

Utah will be added to the list one month hence; Indiana on April 3, 1918; Michigan on April 30, 1918; New Hampshire on May 1, 1918 and Montana on Dec. 31, 1918. Thus by the beginning of next year half of the states of the Union will be dry, and in half of them the law of March 3, 1917 will be generally effective.

More than this, the law to come into effect next Sunday will be operative in numerous townships, cities, counties, villages and districts of states that are not generally dry, but in which, under local option laws, local prohibition exists.

The Postoffice Department has placed a broad construction upon the new act. Newspapers and other publications of general circulation that continue to accept liquor advertisements will be obliged to either perfect their machinery of circulation so as to make invasion of prohibited territory impossible, or run the risk of incurring severe penalties.

Section 5 of the law provides that no letter, postal card, pamphlet, or publication of any kind, containing any advertisement of spirituous, vinous, malted, fermented or other intoxicating liquors of any kind, or any of them, shall be deposited in or carried by the mails of the United States, or to be delivered by any postmaster or letter carrier, when addressed or directed to any person, firm, corporation, or association, or other addressee, at any place or point in any state or territory of the United States, at which it is, by law in force in the state or territory on July 1, 1917, unlawful to advertise or solicit for such liquors, or any of them, respectively.

The publisher who violates this act, personally or thru an agent, renders himself liable to a fine of $1,000 and six months' imprisonment for the first offense, and to imprisonment for a year for each subsequent offense, trial of such cases to be held either in the district in which the matter was mailed or in the district to which it was carried by mail for delivery.

The ruling of the Postoffice Department that the new act applies to localities where prohibition exists thru local option, as well as to the states that are wholly dry, sustains the viewpoint of the prohibition leaders that the law should be so interpreted as to prevent distillers, brewers and other liquor interests from defeating local option laws by use of a Federal agency over which the local law has no control.

Any drink containing alcohol has been defined by the Postoffice Department.

WOULD HAVE HER ASSOCIATES KNOW

"I Want to Tell Them of Tanlac", Mrs. Nifong
Asserts

"I've gained so much good from one bottle of Tanlac that I want my friends to try it and learn what a splendid medicine it really is," Mrs. Lydia E. Nifong, well known local woman of 327 East College avenue, told the Tanlac Man on June 20.

"My system was in a run down condition," Mrs. Nifong continued. "I suffered severely at times from acute indigestion. My nerves were in such condition I couldn't sleep at night. Liver and kidney trouble often bothered me, too. I never felt like doing my housework, just seeming to lack the necessary ambition."

"I knew that I needed a good tonic and as Tanlac was so highly recommended by local people I decided to try the new medicine. Well sir, one bottle of Tanlac has surely done me a lot of good. My liver and kidneys are working perfectly and the nervousness has been so much relieved that I can sleep fine at night. I never suffer from indigestion any more, either. I feel so much stronger, too, and go about my work without feeling the least fatigued. I've recommended Tanlac for my brother and he is now taking the new medicine. I feel sure he will be benefited as I was."

Tanlac is now being introduced in Jacksonville at the Coover-Shreve Drug Co., East Side store, where a special Tanlac representative is explaining the new medicine to the public daily. Tanlac also may be obtained at the West Side store of the Coover-Shreve Co. It is sold in Waverly at the Wyle Drug Co.; in New Berlin at the New Berlin Drug Co.; in Ashland at H. O. Brownback's; in Versailles at A. G. Bates'; in Chapin at F. P. McKinney's; in Rockhouse at W. D. Berry's; in White Hall at the City Drug store; in Bluffs at F. T. Curtis', and in Pittsfield at J. H. ## OLD JACKSONVILLE

By Ensley Moore

(Member of Illinois Historical Society.)

The older settlers of Jacksonville referred to a certain habitation as "The Ellis house."

It was built by the Rev. John M. Ellis, of whom, and his first wife, considerable mention has appropriately been made in this series of sketches.

Mr. Ellis came here, with his wife, nee Miss Frances Celeste Brard, in the summer of 1828. They lived for a while in a building which he referred to as a paragon erected by his "people," the members of the First Presbyterian church of Jacksonville. He gave up his pastorate in the fall of 1831.

Mr. Ellis bought the ground now known as lot 2 of Chandler's addition to Jacksonville, from Dr. Ero Chandler, Oct. 1, 1830. The house must have been erected quite soon after. It was framed in Cincinnati, at that time the business metropolis of the "Far West."

The house is still standing on the central lot, there being only three originally, on the north side of W. State street, between Church and Fayette streets.

The Baptist church now stands on the ground then occupied by the First Presbyterian church, a frame building erected during Mr. Ellis' service here; and that frame building now stands on the north end of the Baptist church lot, at the southwest corner of Church and Court streets. This frame building was dedicated as a church by the Presbyterians, June 13, 1831.

In this residence of Mr. Ellis, now just west of the Baptist church, the plans for the Jacksonville Female Academy were made in 1830, his wife having taught a school from which it was more or less descended, for some time previous.

In his residence took place

of his life, when, in 1833, his wife and two children died there of cholera. A relative, of the Conn family, of Mrs. Ellis, also died there the same season. This young woman was stricken while engaged in making bread.

The story of Mr. Ellis' bereavement has been so often told as to have become one of the best known events in the early history of Jacksonville.

But as a founder, if not the founder, of Illinois College, and with his wife a beginner of Jacksonville Female Academy, the name of Ellis should never be forgotten by Jacksonville, or in the history of Illinois.

Mr. Ellis made his home here, and was engaged in educational organization for some time after resigning his pastorate in 1831. But he sold his house to Stafford Smith whose last residence was in Merced, for many years. The deed was dated April 14, 1836, and in Detroit, "in the territory of Michigan." The deed was signed also by the second Mrs. Ellis, whose maiden name had been Josephine Moore, she being of the state of New Hampshire.

The Hon. Wm. C. Goudy, of Chicago, told the writer that Mr. Goudy's father's family occupied the house as their first residence in Jacksonville, in 1833. He thought they entered it, first as a home, next after the death of the Ellis, apostrophe.

Mr. Stafford Smith, a native of Baltimore, Md., had married Miss Jane Porter McMackin, of Philadelphia, Pa., in 1835, and in May, 1836, Mr. Dennis McMackin, father-in-law of Mr. Smith, came with his family from Philadelphia,

IN ACTIVE TRAINING AT INDIANA ARMY CAMP

First Few Weeks Devoted to Teaching Rudiments of Soldierly and Camp Life—Arrangements Made for William H. Taft and William J. Bryan to Speak Before the Men.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 27.—The several thousand young men from West Virginia, Ohio, Kentucky and Indiana taking the officers reserve training corps course at Fort Benjamin Harrison are learning what they must do when they are sent to the front. The first several weeks of training were devoted to teaching them the rudiments of soldierly and camp life. Now they have been given picks and shovels and are being taught how to "dig themselves in," how to make themselves invisible to observers of an enemy and how best to approach an enemy and take him by surprise. Interspersed with the drill, digging, marching and other strenuous work, the cadets listen to lectures and study text books concerning warfare and the duties of officers. They work practically fourteen hours a day five days a week.

The hard work of trench digging was not assigned to the young men until after the preliminary hardening training was gone through. The West Virginia and Ohio men engage in target practice and other work while the Kentucky-Indiana men dig. Then the work is reversed. The physical condition of the country surrounding the camp is adapted to a certain extent to what might be expected in active duty. After a hard rain it is very muddy. A small stream is near, and one company recently was led through the water neck deep in pursuit of an imaginary enemy. The trench digging is not make believe, but the actual work.

The reorganization of the camp was perfected at the end of about four weeks of training. What was known as the eighth and ninth training divisions now are designated at the eighth and ninth training regiments. West Virginia and Ohio men and that family made the Ellis house their first residence in Jacksonville. At that time the present Rockwell-Frost house was the only one from there to Gov. Duncan's, now known as the Kirby place.

It may be of some interest, as showing the value of real estate in those days, to state that the purchase price Mr. Smith paid Mr. Ellis was $1500, and there has been some additions made to the rear of the house since that time.

Mr. Smith sold the house, March 1, 1841, to

Jos. M. Alexander.

The writer could not find the record of ownership again until Dec. 15, 1849, when Mr. David A. Smith sold the place to Jonathan Neely.

Mr. Neely was long known as one of our most prominent citizens. He was the first conductor on the Northern Cross railroad, and so the first in the great North West. He was afterwards a town trustee and an alderman under the city organization. He was identified with a great deal of the history of this place. The writer is not sure when Mr. Neely first occupied the Ellis place, but Neely was living there in 1857. About that time there was a planing mill on North West street, north of the "Great Western railroad," and the mill was run by Massey, King, Neely & Co.—Perhaps from this association.

Horatio H. Massey became the occupant of the Ellis house, and so continued until about 1862, when he went to Joliet or Lockport, Ill. Mr. Massey was a relative of the Massey families so long well known out west of this city, on the Mound road and Lovers Lane.

Marshall P. Ayers occupied the place, perhaps during Mr. D. A. Smith's control of it, and there John A. Ayers was born, being the first child of Mr. and Mrs. Ayers.

The Robbs, by which is meant David Robb and family, occupied the house some time along between 1845 and 1857. Mr. Robb was a well known merchant, a native of Pennsylvania, and the father of Miss Clara Robb, who became the first wife of the late Hon. William Brown, who died a few years ago. The Robbs were very prominent socially, there being some very pretty girls in the family.

As recalled by the writer, Charles McDonald, brother of Alexander McDonald, succeeded Mr. Massey, about 1862 in the ownership of the Ellis house. Mr. McDonald was a merchant, had been a "49er" in California days, and was prominent as a church and Sunday school man. He died in the Fall of 1871, since which time his widow has continued her residence in the old house. Mrs. McDonald was a daughter of George Rearick, an early settler, merchant and county officer. Her sister, Mrs. Ellen Rearick Conn was

The First Female Child born in Jacksonville. This city has been Mrs. McDonald's home most of her life. She married in 1848, and accompanied her husband to California along with those "Argonauts." One of Mrs. McDonald's sisters married Curtis P. Conn, whose mother was a step, or half sister of Mrs. Jno. M. Ellis.

A Historic House.
The references given above show this old house to have been one of the most historic residences not only in Jacksonville, but in the state of Illinois, and its history runs back well thru the centennial of the compose the eighth regiment and Kentucky-Indiana men the ninth. Each regiment consists of nine companies of infantry, three batteries of artillery and one troop of cavalry, although in reality all remain infantry for there are no guns for the artillery and no horses for the cavalry. Colored hat cords distinguish the men. The states have separate companies. What is known as the "Foreign Legion" was formed from men who came from states other than the four included in the territory assigned to this camp.

A survey of the men in the camp has been made and a card index compiled giving his name, address, and other information. The index shows that 90 percent are college men, and 75 percent are fraternity members. An equal number recorded church affiliations. Practically every man enrolled is a member of one or more clubs or organizations. The Masons, Knights of Columbus and other fraternal orders are represented widely. Through the recreation bureau preliminary arrangements have been made for William Howard Taft, and William Jennings Bryan to speak before the men. Both will be in Indianapolis early in August.

Silk and Madras Shirts made of fast colors and sold at most reasonable prices by FRANK BYRNS, S. W. Cor. Square.

Miss Dorothy Dodswoth of South East street was taken to Passavant hospital yesterday to have her tonsils removed.

FOR SAFE HITTING

Adds Two More Games to His String.
Making His Record 24 Games in Which He Has Made One or More
Hits—Senators Defeat Champs

Chicago, June 27.—Ty Cobb, Detroit's sensational outfielder continued to set the pace for safe hitting in consecutive games today in the American League, when he added two more games to his string. He obtained one hit in each game of the double header here, which his club lost to Chicago. The scores were 5 to 2 and 3 to 2, respectively, in favor of the locals.

Chicago won the first game by bunting hits, Risberg's triple which scored three runs in the fourth inning winning the game. Murphy's double while batting in a pinch gave Chicago the second game when two runs scored on it.

Burns had five assists at first base which is a season's record for assists for an initial error.

Cobb's scoring from second base on a short wild pitch and Risberg's batting were features.

CHURCHES CO-OPERATE
FOR JULY FOURTH

Throughout the Rockford Diocese of the Catholic church there, will be special Fourth of July services, in order to bring about a devoutly patriotic observance of the national birthday as suggested by the State Council of Defense. In his reply to the letter of the council asking that such services be held, the Rt. Rev. P. J.
Muldoon, Bishop of the Diocese, was clear and emphatic. He said:

"I wish to assure you that I will do all possible for an appropriate celebration of the Fourth of July. As we have a conference of the clergy of the Rockford Diocese on June 28th, I will direct the pastors."

Pastors, Sunday school superintendents, and church clerks of more than 700 congregations of the Christian church in the state have also been urged by the Rev. H. H. Peters, state secretary of the Missionary society of the denomination, to join in the movement for religious as well as secular observance of the day. Mr.
Peters sent out letters to that effect this week, and in his reply to the council he said:

"On the 140th anniversary of American independence we are face to face with the greatest crisis and at the same time the greatest opportunity that has ever come to our people. The Fourth of July this year is the time for the Declaration of Independence of the world. The sentiments that animated the lives of our people a century and a half ago are finding a response in every nation under heaven today. What an opportunity this Fourth of July presents! The centuries with their achievements look down upon us and the tomorrows of the whole world are to be controlled by our conduct."

CHURCHES CO-OPERATE FOR JULY FOURTH

Throughout the Rockford Diocese of the Catholic church there, will be special Fourth of July services, in order to bring about a devoutly patriotic observance of the national birthday as suggested by the State Council of Defense. In his reply to the letter of the council asking that such services be held, the Rt. Rev. P. J. Muldoon, Bishop of the Diocese, was clear and emphatic. He said:

"I wish to assure you that I will do all possible for an appropriate celebration of the Fourth of July. As we have a conference of the clergy of the Rockford Diocese on June 28th, I will direct the pastors."

Pastors, Sunday school superintendents and church clerks of more than 700 congregations of the Christian church in the state have also been urged by the Rev. H. H. Peters, state secretary of the Missionary society of the denomination, to join in the movement for religious as well as secular observance of the day. Mr. Peters sent out letters to that effect this week, and in his reply to the council he said:

"On the 140th anniversary of American independence we are face to face with the greatest crisis and at the same time the greatest opportunity that has ever come to our people. The Fourth of July this year is the time for the Declaration of Independence of the world. The sentiments that animated the lives of our people a century and a half ago are finding a response in every nation under heaven today. What an opportunity this Fourth of July presents. The centuries with their achievements look down upon us and the tomorrows of the whole world are to be controlled by our conduct."

MR. AUTO OWNER!

Why throw your old auto tires away when they are good for 2500 to 6500 more miles.

My method of taking two old tires and making one good one is saving thousands of auto owners from 50 to 75 per cent on their bills.

Send me two old tires and I will make one good tire that you can get from 2500 to 6500 more miles out of. In sending me tires be sure one has a good rim no matter how bad the tread is worn. For the other one that has a good tread no matter what condition rim is in.

If You Haven't a Tire with a Good Tread I Can Furnish You One

PRICES FOR DOUBLE TREADING

SIZE	When you furnish both tires	When You Furnish one tire	SIZE	When you furnish both tires	When You Furnish one tire

BELIEF THAT U. S. WILL FIX PRICE LOWERS WHEAT

Market Closes Stead ypt 1 to 4 Cents
Lower—Brought Complaints
From Western Kansas Help Rally
Corn

Chicago, June 27.—Spreading of belief that the United States government would fix a price for the whole domestic wheat crop of 1917 did a good deal today to pull down wheat quotations here. The market closed steady to one cent to four cents lower with July at $2.05 and Sept. at $1.85. Corn gained 1/2c to 2c; oats 1/2c to 3/4c and provisions 1/2c to 3/4c.
Incentives to buy wheat except on a hand to mouth basis appeared to be lacking in view of seeming likelihood that government control of values was imminent. The consequent downward tendency of the market received further impetus from assertions that immediate embargo restrictions were contemplated to curtail shipments to European countries. In addition bears had advantage of Canadian reports. There were encouraging estimates, too, in regard to the probable yield of the surplus producing states both in the spring wheat belt and the winter wheat belt region as well. Drought complaints from western Kansas helped to rally the corn market, but the rally was short-lived. The buying of corn and oats for the entire of the crop was expected soon. At first the market was fairly well supported, but later it was heavily sold and a bearish influence.

Through the day, oats felt the stimulus of a heavy demand for the part of houses with seaboard connections. The July option was chiefly in demand.
The market was fairly well supported by the readiness with which offers were accepted by packers and shippers. The late closing of corn was also a bullish factor.

Your Neighbors Are SAVING 25%

Wire Your Home NOW—and SAVE MONEY

WHY DON'T YOU ?

Your neighbor is enjoying the advantages and benefits of Electric Light. Why are not you?

Never in the past were you able to have your house wired at such low figures as we are now quoting—fully 25% lower than ever before.

Our present house wiring campaign will last but thirty days, and those not placing orders now will lose a genuine opportunity to secure a valuable improvement at a big saving.

Have you asked for an estimate? Do so at once; it entails no obligations.

Have you asked how much you will have to pay per month? Have you asked how Electric Light compares in cost with other light?

It is really astonishing to many how little it costs to have a house wired; how little "tearing up" and "muss" there is, and how small monthly payments are accepted. Phone us (either phone 580) and ask us to give you estimates. We will send an Illuminating Engineer to your property at once, make careful estimate, and report promptly.

RECRUITS PLAY GAME OF "MAKE BELIEVE"

Life of Man in Training at Great Lakes Naval Station is Provided With Everything He Would Get at Sea Except Seasickness—Play Realistic Military Games—Recreation is Encouraged

Great Lakes, Ill., June 27.—It's a great game they play out here at the United States Naval Training Station, a glorified sort of "let's make believe" of childhood days, with the difference that in this case the entire proceeding is deadly earnest and fraught with tremendous possibilities to a nation.

For players there are 9,000 men and for toys they have all the devices of modern sea warfare—guns, boats, a radio station. The hundreds of acres in the reservation are the ships and revellers at two bells instead of five o'clock.

"Not many of the men are around today, all of them have gone ashore, said an officer recently to a visitor inspecting the station.

"Ashore?" was the gasping reply. For miles around there was nothing in sight but prairie.

"On leave, that is," was the explanation.

For Tired Women With Aching Heads

"They help me so much and I find relief as soon as I begin taking your Foley Kidney Pills," Mrs. Frank E. Wood, Morrill, Maine, R. F. D. No. 2. Sometimes it seems as if you can't stand the pain across your back. It is just making your life miserable and robbing you of all energy and strength. When you are constantly tired, head always aching, nerves "on edge," kidney action painful and burning, then is the time to start in at once on Foley Kidney Pills.

They strengthen the weak, failing kidneys, improve their action, enable them to throw off the poisons that cause your trouble. Your nerves grow peaceful, sleep becomes sounder, nervous headaches disappear. As Mrs. Wood says: "I find relief as soon as I begin to take your Foley Kidney Pills." Be sure you get the genuine Foley Kidney Pills, for they are purely medicinal and contain no harmful drugs.

J. A. Obermeyer
City Drug Store,

planation. "When they leave the station, they go ashore, for we are living under the same conditions as if we were at sea."

"Life in the station provides the recruit everything he would get at sea, except sea-sickness. He scrubs his barracks and tent floor instead of a deck, but he calls it "scrubbing deck." And the time honored salt water custom which decrees that the bluejacket must be his own laundress prevails on this gigantic inland warship. Every day is a busy day, but the men thrive on it. One of them outlined a typical 24 hours of routine as follows:

The Day's Routine

5 a. m.—Reveille.

5:15 a. m.—Fall in for setting up exercises and bath.

5:30 a. m.—Tidy up quarters, scrub decks, roll up tent to let in sun and air and place cot on outside after rolling up bedding.

6:30 a. m.—Mess which is "navy" for any meal.

8:00 a. m.—Drill until 11 a. m.

Noon—Mess.

3:00 p. m.—Three hours of recreation, study and washing clothes.

6:00 p. m.—Mess.

6:30 p. m.—Muster in for inspection, after which there is two hours for recreation or study.

8:30 p. m.—Signal for all to be in tents.

8:45 p. m.—Final gun, all quiet on board.

9:00 p. m.—Taps.

Such an arbitrary outline, however, necessarily varies from day to day and fails to include many of the most interesting features of the life of a recruit. In between the various duties which must be performed, the sailor manages to sandwich minutes that keeps his dunnage bag in ship-shape, enable him to write real yarns to the folks at home or to puff pipe in quiet contentment.

He is a miser of his time or soon learns to be, for living under naval routine he must needs find for himself opportunity for personal devices.

In varying the day's work, drill may be devoted one day to infantry instruction with gun and bayonet, for the sailor must learn land tactics as well as seamanship, while the next day boats are manned and the bluejackets go dipping over Lake Michigan as if preparing for a landing on a foreign shore. Buildings of the station provide means for training the men in every work which they may be called upon to perform. In the big arched drill hall, large enough to house a regiment, platforms across either end are equipped with signalling apparatus—semaphore, wig-wag, Ardol—found on the bridge of a war vessel. On the drill floor are 5-inch field guns.

All Varieties of Knots

In the gymnasium, spars are swung from the balconies and depending rope ladders give landlubbers from Kansas and Indiana and other inland states new thrills in climbing their snaky lengths. In the instruction building, examples of all varieties of knots—double carrieks, Turk's heads, luff tackles and Matthew Walkers—show what the recruit has to learn to do with a bit of rope. A swinging platform, on wheels, on which is mounted a compass and steering wheel, offers all the sensations of a rolling boat as the landsman tries to "keep her headed nor'west by nor."

Of all the branches of work however, it is the boat drills that most of the recruits find their pleasantest tasks. Three gunboats are attached to the station for practice, and there are motor launches, in addition to numerous cutters and whaleboats which the lads are taught to row. In the military games which they play, placid Lake Michigan becomes a fabled sea, the rugged bluffs of Illinois take on the aspect of some hostile coast and the thick forest which makes the district round about the station one of the most beautiful in America hides, for the time being, a treacherous foe.

In a recent sham battle, 12 boat loads of men, equipped with machine guns, were ordered to storm the bluffs. Swinging into shore, the jackies leaped from the boats and struggled up the hills in fine order, then made an orderly retreat after the objectives had been gained.

Scouties Patrol the Shores

Adding to the reality of the games are sentries constantly patrolling the lake shore, armed with signal flags and spy glasses in addition to ample means for taking care of any hostile visitor. In times past, these apprentice seamen, keeping watch on an inland shore, have given fine aid to lake steamers which hoisted distress flags.

Target practice is a prime necessity in the training of a sailor and the lake bluffs make a fine natural range. Self registering targets, operated by electricity record on shore the hits made on the bulls eye out in the water.

While the government has been building it has not forgotten that the majority of the men who answer the call to the colors are still youths. Recreation of every clean and healthy kind is encouraged. Besides the gymnasium, there is a fully equipped theatre, where the sailors produce and act anything from a three act farce to a five act drama, which at other times serves as a concert hall, next is available as a dancing pavilion, and on Sundays is commandeered by the chaplains for religious services. Marine decorations of vari-colored signal flags enliven the place. Bowling alleys, billiard rooms and a library also are open to the men.

It is perhaps in the mess hall of the station that the visitors see the station at its best. While he may have been impressed by the spotless barracks, or the orderly streets of tents which house the overflow population, since the station has grown overnight from 1,500 to 9,000 men, it is the task of providing sustenance, three times a day for so many growing Americans that excites wonder and admiration. A preliminary delicious odor of baking bread puts the civilian in a proper state of mind to appreciate the heaping plates of substantial and thoroughly cooked food before which 9,000 men stand at one time, until the officer in command gives the word to "fall to." There is ice cream or a brilliant-hued piece of watermelon to top off the repeat, which no visitor ever has been able to remain thru, watching the gustatory satisfaction in which he has no part. Unfortunately, dinner is not served for persons "from ashore."
